Dangerously'

CLEVELAND'S BISHOP

Most Reverend Edward F. Hoban, S.T.D., LL.D.
Bishop of Cleveland

HOLY NAME'S PASTOR

Right Reverend Monsignor Charles W. McDonough

THE BIG PRESSES were already running off sections of the '51 Namer when word came that our Father McDonough had been made a monsignor.

Although it was impossible to include pictures of the beautiful investiture ceremony, faculty and student body are happy to extend their heartiest felicitations on an honor so well deserved.

As president of the high school, enrolling over a thousand students from 74 parishes, Monsignor McDonough has proved himself a true father, eager for his children's real happiness, here and hereafter. They, and all Holy Name, rejoice with him. Congratulations, Monsignor!

GOODBYE GIFT FOR SISTER ROSARIO

SISTER ROSARIO completes her six years as principal this June, so she will soon be leaving us. We can't resist teasing her by saying that she will always be remembered as the first principal to utter those two famous words: "Attention, please!"

We want to add, however, in black and white in our yearbook, that Sister has reigned for six years as a wise and competent ruler, always taking our part and working for our best interests.

To Sister Rosario, for her patience and helpfulness in scholastic, social, and spiritual matters, goes our Holy Name award for the Best Principal of '51!

MOTHER SETON'S DAUGHTERS

"SISTER" . . . just a common ordinary noun to many people, but to Holy Namers it is a title full of meaning, rich in love, and connoting understanding, and generous service of God and neighbor.

The Sisters' work in the classroom and convent is never done. In the classroom they patiently share with us their knowledge and experience. At home in the chapel they include us in bountiful prayers of hope for our fruitful future.

For all their understanding, for all their efforts on our behalf, we say, "Thank you, Sisters!"

SOME LOYAL BACKERS OF LITTLE DAVID

Miss Helen Gioia

Mrs. Ruth Seitz

Mr. Edward Heglaw

Miss Frances Nugent

Mr. John Spezzaferro

BOASTING of a board of 29 Sisters of Charity is not enough for Namers, for they also lay claim to seven lay teachers, three of whom are men.

Not only do they coach us in athletics, and teach us speech, French, civics, math, and physical education, but best of all they train us to be responsible citizens and thinking Christians, the latter job being done by example!

Mr. Joseph Lesko

THE GREEN WAVE AT THE ELEMENTARY

To get our '61'ers off to the proper outlook and spirit of Holy Name's family life are the Sisters and lay teachers who devote their talents and skills for the development of Christian character.

QUESTION I: A FOREWORD
WE'LL LIVE DANGEROUSLY -- BUT HOW?

"Anyone who wants to live a quiet life with few risks picked a bad time to be born," says David Lilienthal, Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

As high school students in 1951 we know this is true. But—the important thing isn't just realizing the truth of that statement. The important thing is to know how to meet the situations we are bound to encounter in our atomic future. Shall we shrug and say, "O what's the use? We're in for it!" Shall we become bitter, or rebellious? Or decide to drown our concern in dating, or clothes, or a job, or an "A" report?

No. Those are the escapes a coward seeks. Christian youth can face any future.

First of all, we know we'll never carry any Cross alone.

Secondly, we have an authoritative formula for a positive approach to modern evils, an answer to the cry in every idealistic young heart: "What can I do to solve the terrible problems of my era?"

This solution, proposed by Our Lord Himself, is "Charity."

Only in proportion to its success in teaching boys and girls love for God and love for others is the school of today accomplishing what it should. In the '51 "Namer" we apply the yardstick of the Golden Rule to classes and activities at Holy Name.

IN THE YEARS TO COME most of us will follow very ordinary paths, few of us will attain to fame, or to great fortune either. But whatever field we enter, we can be sure of this —that we are all going to have opportunities to do big things for the Church.

The world today is facing a Lent. Before the Easter comes there are going to be plenty of anguished tears shed, and much innocent blood spilled. Perhaps martyrs are going to die during the next decades here in America as they are dying now behind the Iron Curtain. Our turn may even come to stand up with Pancratius and Agnes.

At any rate, we can no longer be lukewarm. We must "speak up for Christianity." And before we can do that, we must live Christianity. We cannot give what we haven't got.

INTRODUCING THE UNDERCLASSMEN

HOLY NAME UNDERCLASSMEN have again proven themselves efficient and dependable supporters of whatever activity may be at hand.

● Orchids should go to the youngest Namers, of the Junior High, for their splendid cooperation, particularly in the Yearbook Ad Drive and in the Bishops' Relief Fund.

● Freshies have now a year of Holy Name life completed; the school and fellow students say, "You did a fine job, hope you stay."

● While some of the Sophomore boys enjoyed their first year in Varsity sports, the girls are still dreamy-eyed over the Freshman-Sophomore prom.

● Juniors also found their interest centered in a dance, the Junior-Senior prom, highlight of the Junior year.

A FINAL BOUQUET TO '51 QUIZ KIDS

It would not be fair to close this section of the book without giving a well-deserved orchid to the students in each homeroom who maintained the highest averages during the year.

It takes more than just a high I.Q. to secure and keep top-notch grades. Boys and girls who lead their classes scholastically are noted for leadership, co-operation, and good hard work.

QUESTION II: A YARDSTICK '51 CURRICULUM MUST ACCENT -- WHAT?

"Let us thank God that He makes us live among present problems," wrote Our Holy Father Pius XI. "It is no longer permitted to anyone to be mediocre."

Combating mediocrity, therefore, is the job of the Catholic school of today, that, and filling its students with a courageous, constructive attitude toward their world, with its wars and rumors of wars, with its millions in bondage and its other millions homeless and starving, where the Cross is hated and Christlike ideals despised.

At Holy Name, class after class accents such lessons as will prepare young Catholics to "live dangerously," by being united in brotherhood with all men under the Fatherhood of God.

Such emphasis does not eliminate fun, nor curtail normal teen-age activity. It merely puts first things first, crystallizing, in lesson upon lesson, the Church's recent teachings on Charity as they are expressed in the great Christian Social Principles.

WHEE! BLIZZARD CLOSES SCHOOL!

REMINISCENT of the November snow storm, the heaviest in 37 years, are these local shots, taken by Sister Kathleen Miriam: 1)The Sisters' ice chandelier. 2) Drifts block the passage from the Convent to the Carroll Building. 3) Footprints deep in the snow. 4) Monsignor Elwell tries to dig his car out. 5)Snow piles tower over "Chickie" and "Beanie" Saboslay, neighboring children. 6) Complete coverage of the Sisters' steps and porch. 7) Drifts reach the windows of the boiler room. 8) Men undertake the task of clearing away the snow. 9) Snow covers garage.

AND HERE'S AN IDEAL STUDY NOOK

SUNLIT AND SPACIOUS, Scullen Library is a real student's dream-come-true. Pictures, clippings, pamphlets, and shelves upon shelves of books all extend an invitation to quiet study or to reading just for pleasure.

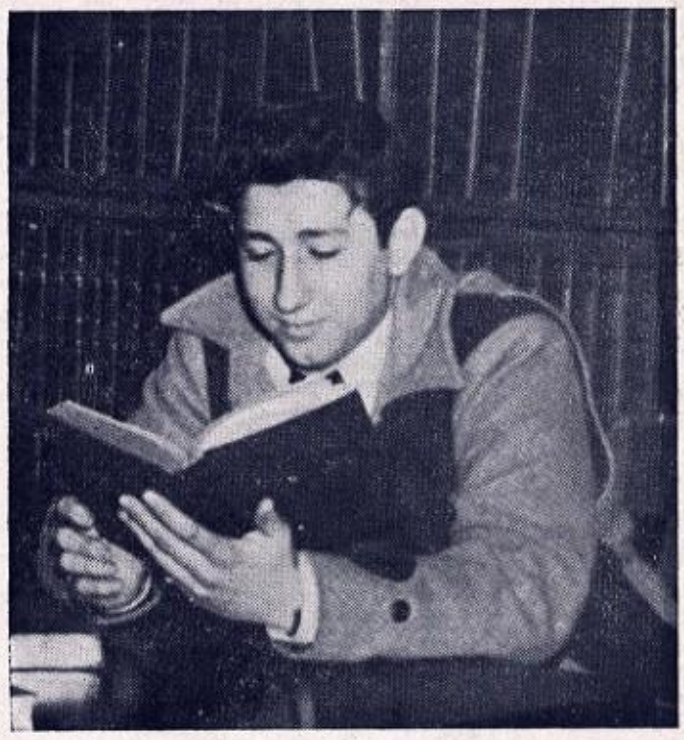
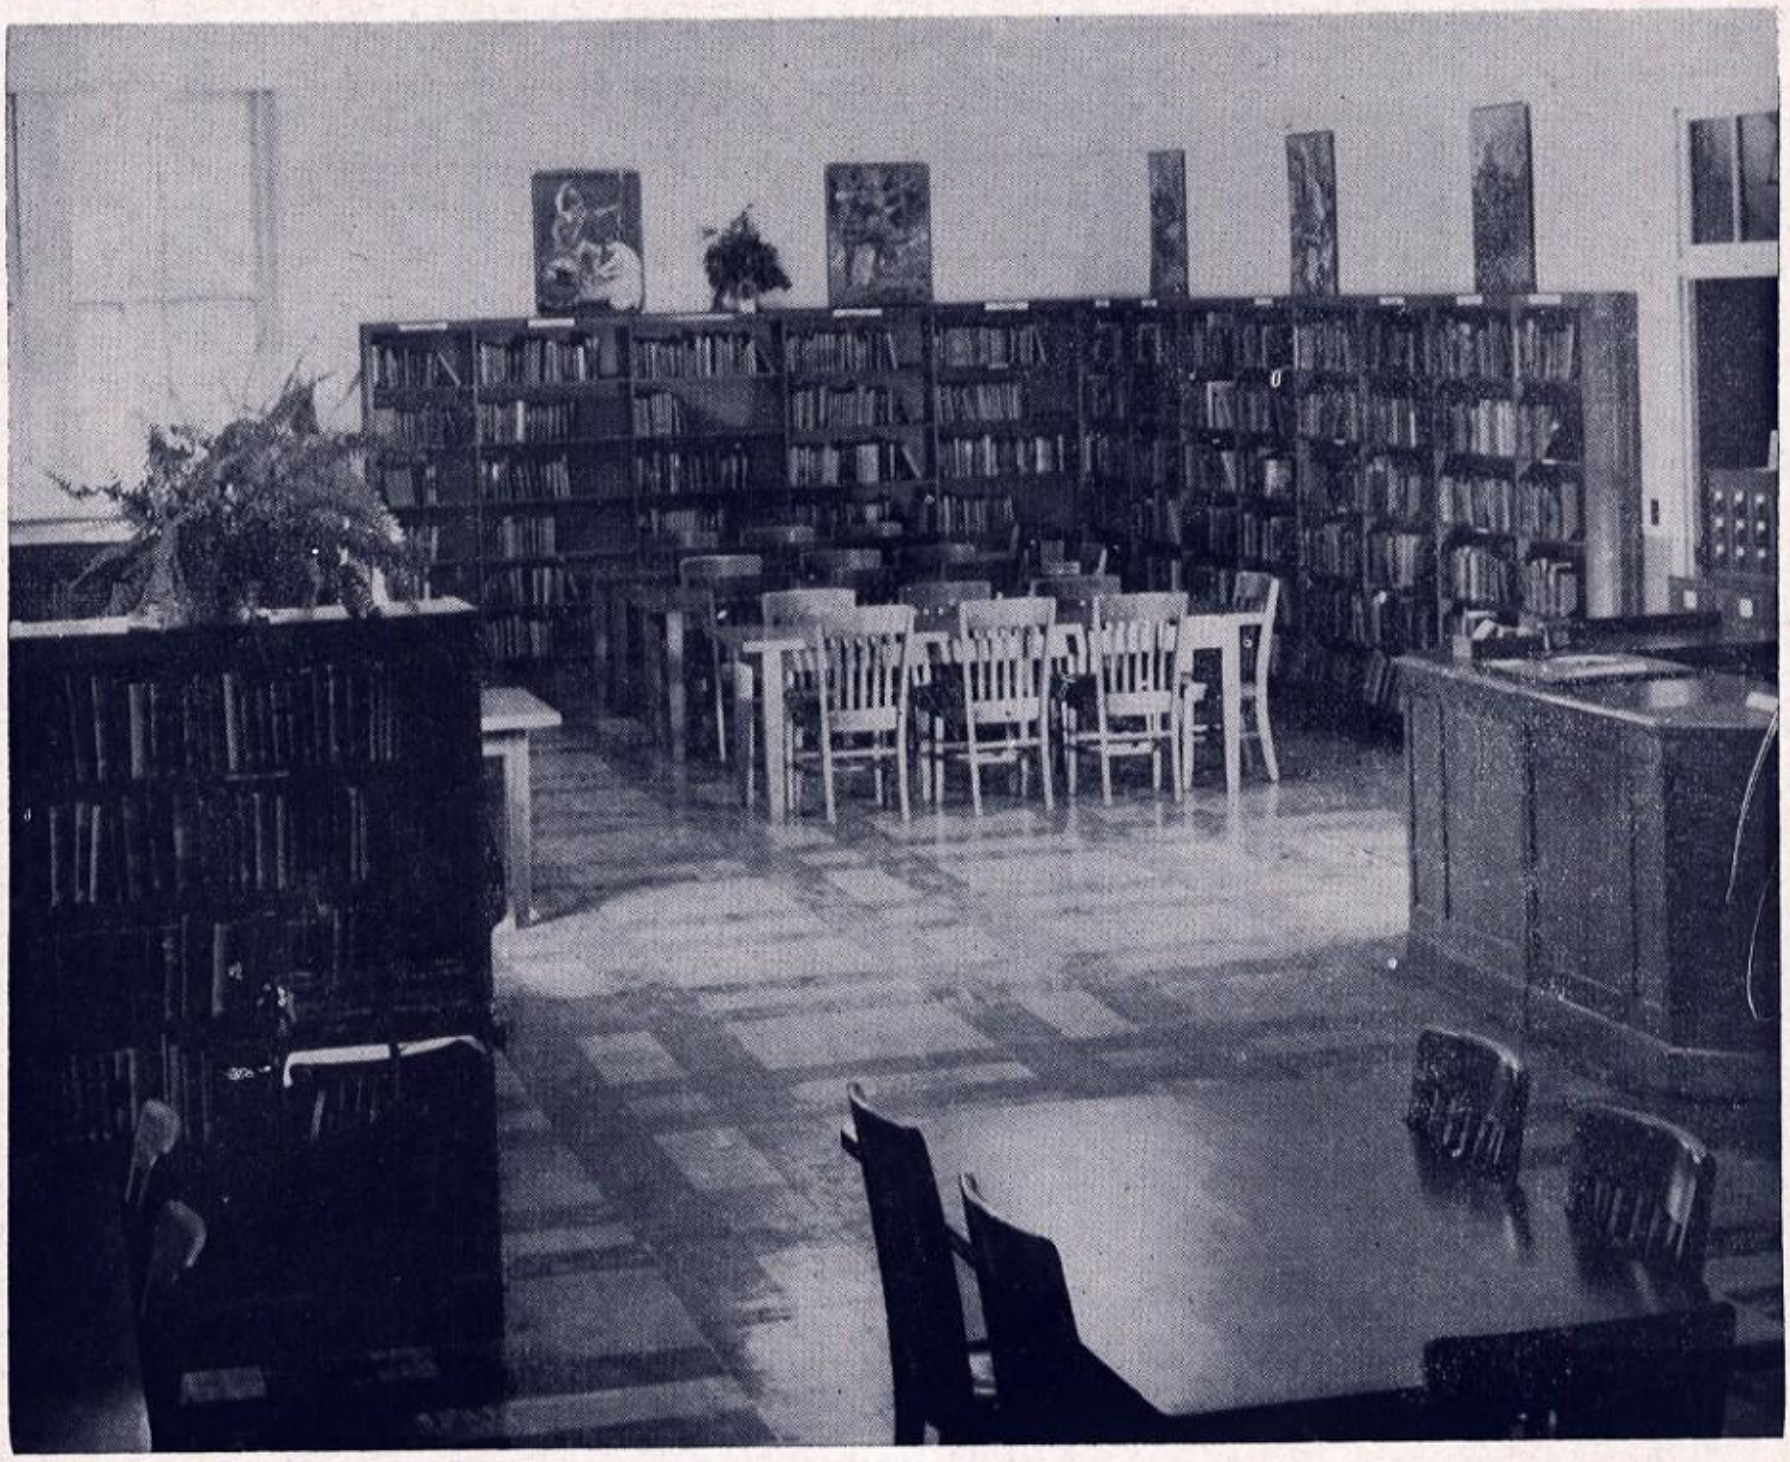
English teachers all agree that if students would only read more they would write better, spell better, speak better, and think better. Namers have that opportunity.

At the right, Dan Scoglietti, looking the picture of industry, prepares a lesson for the next period.





CLASSES PONDER AND THEN APPLY

EVEN A PARROT CAN RECITE SHAKESPEARE. Teachers at Holy Name, realizing this, take every opportunity to emphasize Christian principles rather than mere facts.

Above, a Senior English class is deep in a perusal of the Sun Herald, a new Catholic daily, which promises, in its editorial policy, to "present the news in the light of Christian values and through this work to help restore all things to Christ."

GREAT CHRISTIAN SOCIAL PRINCIPLES

ART CLASSES offer a ripe field for real Christian thinking. Above, Algird Muliolis '53, and Robert Rosky '52, erect a modern crib, designed and carved by themselves. Such displays tend to make students realize the dignity of work and worker.

Perhaps more than any other campus groups, newswriting classes have an opportunity to promote solid Christivian thinking among the students. At the left, two Name Cub page editors, Dolores Kocjancic and Pat Fink, brave a storm to attend a D.S. P.A. meet.

SOMETHING WORTH SACRIFICING FOR --

OUR DAILY LESSONS IN OUR RELIGION

SOCIAL SCIENCES TEACH US TRUTHS

IF EVERY STUDENT in the world during the past 20 years had learned the lessons of the Four Freedoms in his social science classes, there would be no Korean situation today.

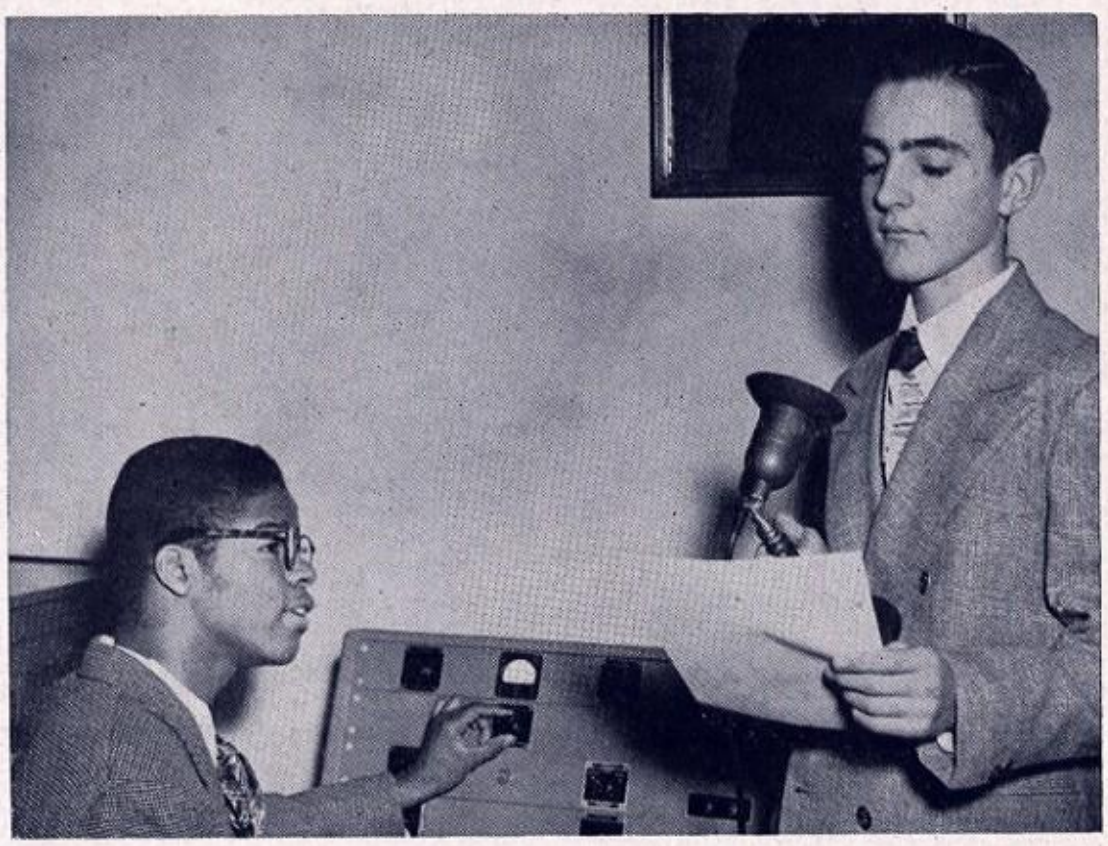
WHICH WE DISCUSS IN SPEECH CLASS

BULL SESSIONS (at Harvard Square or in class,) are one of the best ways for teenagers to sound the real depth of Christian thinking.

Above, Gerald Kane holds forth in Miss Nugent's speech class, while Patricia Zaletel, James Bartlett, Emily Trecarichi, and Thomas Hogan attend with varying degrees of appreciation.

Expressing their ideas on Christian education in a more formal way, Count Shaw and James Taber (right) of Sister Owen Marie's history class, broadcast talks over the P.A. system for National Education Week.



ENGLISH, A TOOL AND A TREASUREHOUSE

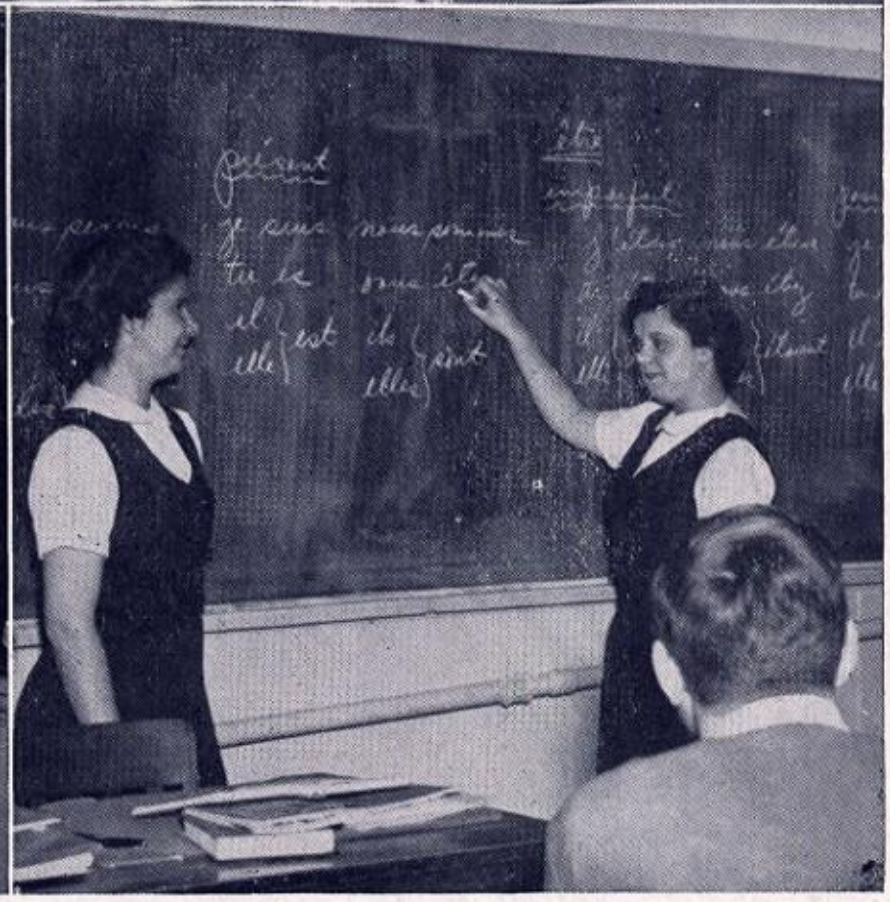
'SPEAK MY LANGUAGE, READ MY HEART'



LANGUAGE CLASSES teach Namers, not only their conjugations and declensions, but how to arrive at a more understanding attitude toward their brothers in other lands.

COEDS WHO LEARN TO COOK AND SEW

IF MORE GIRLS had included a clothing class in their high school course, more home lives would be happier. Seamstresses Carol Cupenko '51, Carol Hoffman '52, and Barbara Plako '54, (above) fitting a pattern to exact measurements, will keep husbands in good humor with a low clothing budget.

KNOW HOW TO MAKE A HOUSE A HOME

TRAINING FOR THE BUSINESS WORLD

PREPARING TO TAKE OVER those Christopher jobs we've heard so much about are commercial classes, directed by Sisters Owen Marie, Mary Conrad, Rose Alma.

OPENS WAY TO CHRISTOPHER JOBS

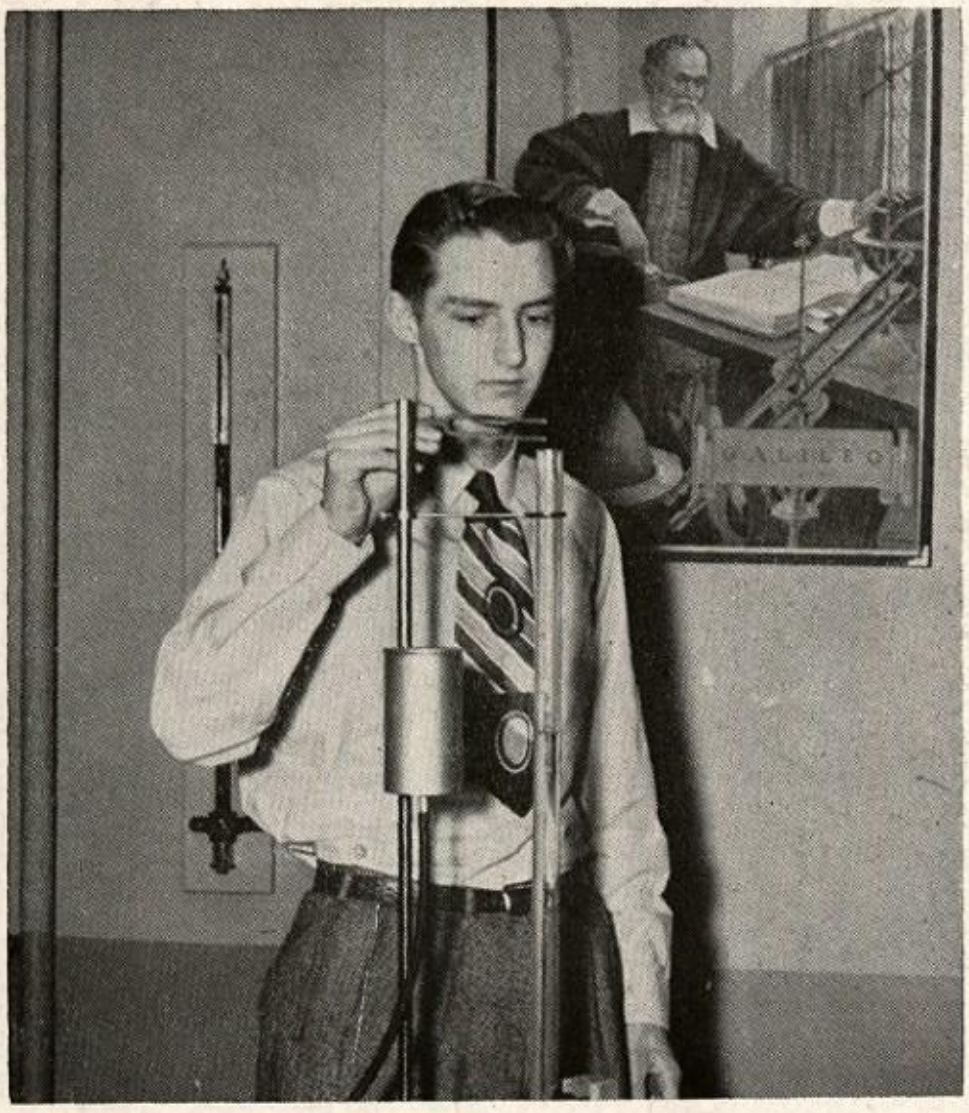
Below, second year business training coeds master office machinery, with the help of Sister Mary Conrad, to prepare to meet the needs of an ever changing world.

WHAT ABOUT SCIENTIFIC PROGRESS?



SCIENCE, wrongly used, has led to all the terrors of atomic and biological warfare.

Science rightly used can lead modern minds to God and teach us the why behind material mysteries.

Working toward this goal, Senior Bill Raimer (left) checks the wave-length of a note in physics class.

IT CAN BE A BLESSING, OR A CURSE

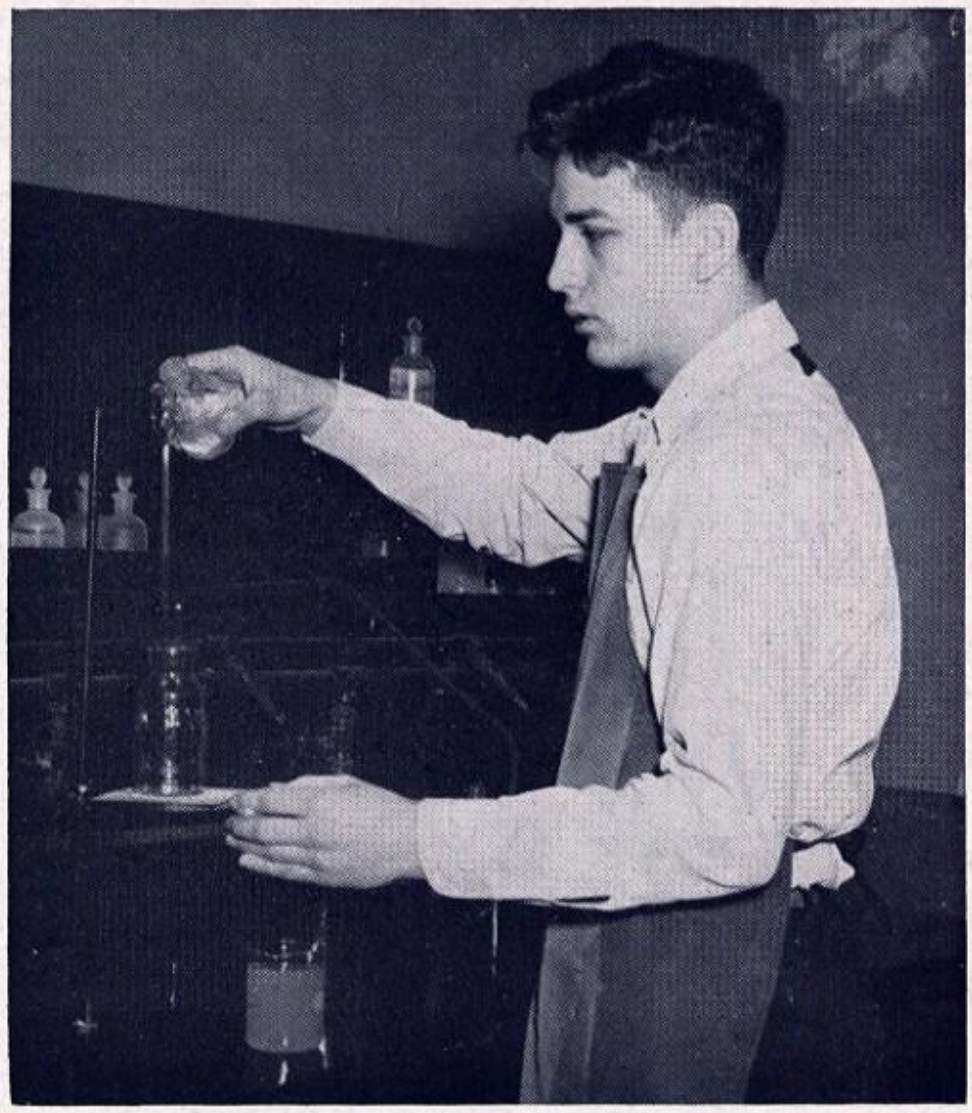
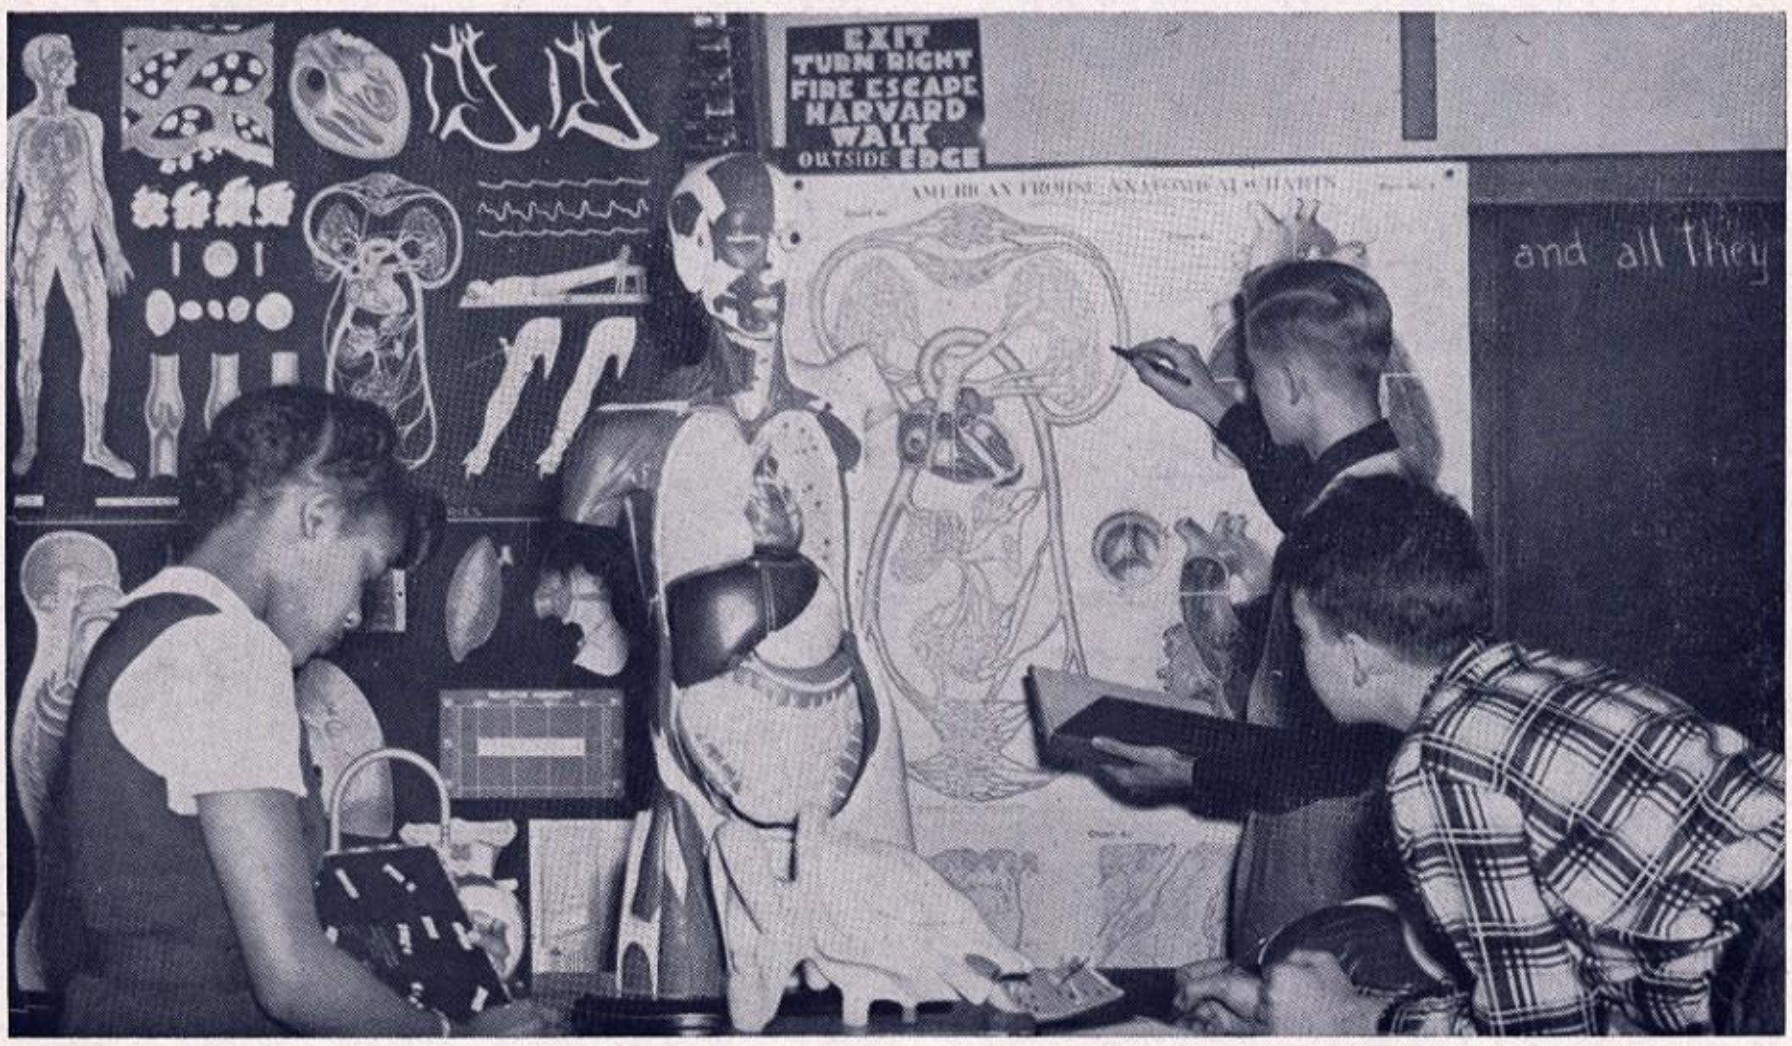
Below, Donald Kozloski explains an Anatomical Chart, while Mary Heard and Michael Turnaukos take notes in Sister Lucretia's class.

Realizing how important science is, most HN students have a science on their program; of these, 40 Seniors are earning a scientific diploma this June.

Science labs at Holy Name are well-equipped and up to date. All Namers take at least one science.





AT HOME, OR IN MILL OR OFFICE

"FIGURES DON'T LIE," they say, "but liars do figure!" Enemies of Christianity found this out long ago, and know how to twist statistics to fit their needs.

It isn't only to confuse Communism that Namers learn their numbers. They often come in mighty handy.

ONE AND ALL FIND MATH IMPORTANT

ARTS AND CRAFTS GROUPS RECOGNIZE

THE ART CLASS, under the direction of Sister Elizabeth Louise, bases its work on the principle of developing one's own talents and enriching the lives of others.

Above, Dick Scullen '52, prepares a stencil for a table cloth, and Don Zenith '52, puts the finishing touches on his entry to one of the local contests, while Bill Jean '53, looks over his Book Week poster.

DIGNITY OF WORK AND THE WORKER

Senior Marianne Mandelik and Eighth Grader Lois Tomasi, second row, are lacing covers.

The Club is open to all.

NAME STAFF KNOWS THRILL IN PUBLISHING

'51 Galley Slaves express their aims beneath the name plate of the paper each month: "School news from a Christian point of view." Realizing the possibilities of the scholastic press, they try to couple sound attractive technique with clear Catholic thinking.

QUESTION III: AN IDEAL
HOW CHRISTIAN ARE EXTRACURRICULARS?

"The true object of leisure is to rest, to gather new sources of energy, to enable the worker to come again to his work with his motives deepened, his spirit of fellowship strengthened, his awareness of truth and love of the beautiful more securely fastened."

Author Unknown.

"God wants us to recreate," writes Lois Schumacher, youthful editor of TODAY, "and He wants us to give Him glory while we are recreating. The French writer, Charles Peguy, had the right idea: 'Everything one does in the day is agreeable to God, provided of course that it is all right. Everything is God's; everything concerns God, everything is done before God's eyes; the whole day is God's. All prayer is God's, all work is God's; all play too is God's, when it is time to play.' Recreation, then is an integral part of the Christian life. We might paraphrase Father Demanasce and say that the man who does not know how to recreate is not a saint; he is a man who has failed his brothers."

Extracurricular activities at Holy Name are designed and geared to meet these Christian requirements for recreation.

Clubs, Sodality, C.S.M.C., music groups—all campus organizations are increasingly aware, too, of their golden opportunity to make the world better. As Father Keller of Christopher fame reminds us, fraternal charity, recognition of the "little" man's rights, appreciation of work and the worker, generosity in sharing talents, as initiated in campus activities, could carry over in ever-widening circles TO THE WORLD WE WANT TO CHANGE!

A section of the snappy, 70 piece Green Wave Band, ready for action,

"THE OBLIGATION to share non-material goods with one another," is a Christian principle generously practiced by Holy Name's Music Department, for Glee Clubs, Band and Orchestra, which compose it, all dedicate time and talent to the pleasure of others.

There are off-campus activities, too. The Orchestra (bottom picture) played at the annual Community Chest Rally. Senior Charles Gump is directing.

SHARING PRECIOUS NON-MATERIAL GIFTS

VETERANS in the Orchestra already, these violinists (right) will be well prepared in the future to use their musical abilities for their own pleasure and for that of others. Caught in the middle of a melody are Mary Alice Smith, Kathleen Mahoney and Marilyn Soltis.

MAKES MUSIC PRACTICE WORTHWHILE

MARCHING MUSICIANS ADD SPIRIT

Mr. Robert Pattie

THROUGH MUD, through snow, through sleet and rain, Holy Name's Band is on the spot with clever marching formations and snappy music arrangements.

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Pattie, who is completing his second year with Holy Name, the Band has thrilled the hearts of Namers with melodious hours.

TO HN RALLIES, FOOTBALL SEASON

THEY SAY, "While the cat is gone the mice will play," but these students are just enjoying a few moments of relaxation during Band practice, held every Tuesday and Thursday under the direction of Mr. Bob Pattie.

GLEE CLUBS LIFT HEARTS ON CAMPUS

UNDER THE DIRECTION of Sister Loretta Marie, the three Glee Clubs sing blithely to honor St. Cecelia at the annual festival in her honor. Top to bottom are Grades XI, XII and X.

WITH LILTING MELODY-FILLED PROGRAMS

"RIO RICO," Senior operetta for '51, featured a galaxy of student stars, in dances, songs, and rollicking humor bits. Miss Frances Nugent and Miss Helen Gioia assisted the Music Department in the production.

WANT A JOB?

Other newswriters who gave a lift on the heavy work of the annual, and even took over many of the important duties, get their orchids (and pictures) on page 141.

EDIT A BOOK!

WITH STATISTICS ABOUT school activities at their fingertips, the annual staff tries to make the '51 book a precious keepsake for the future years.

Almondo DiFrancesco and Francis Houdek (top picture, right) operate the mimeograph, while Don Dreisig and Ed Liggett study the slide rule. Margaret Barren, Kathleen Houck, Mary Jane Archer and LaVern Deia, (middle picture) pose doing some routine duties. And—still wishing all kind readers a blessed Yule are more Staff carollers: Sally Barnovsky, Cecile Harvan, Margaret Heffernan, Mary Jane Archer, Pat Monkosky, Pat Barnes and LaVern Deia, (bottom picture).

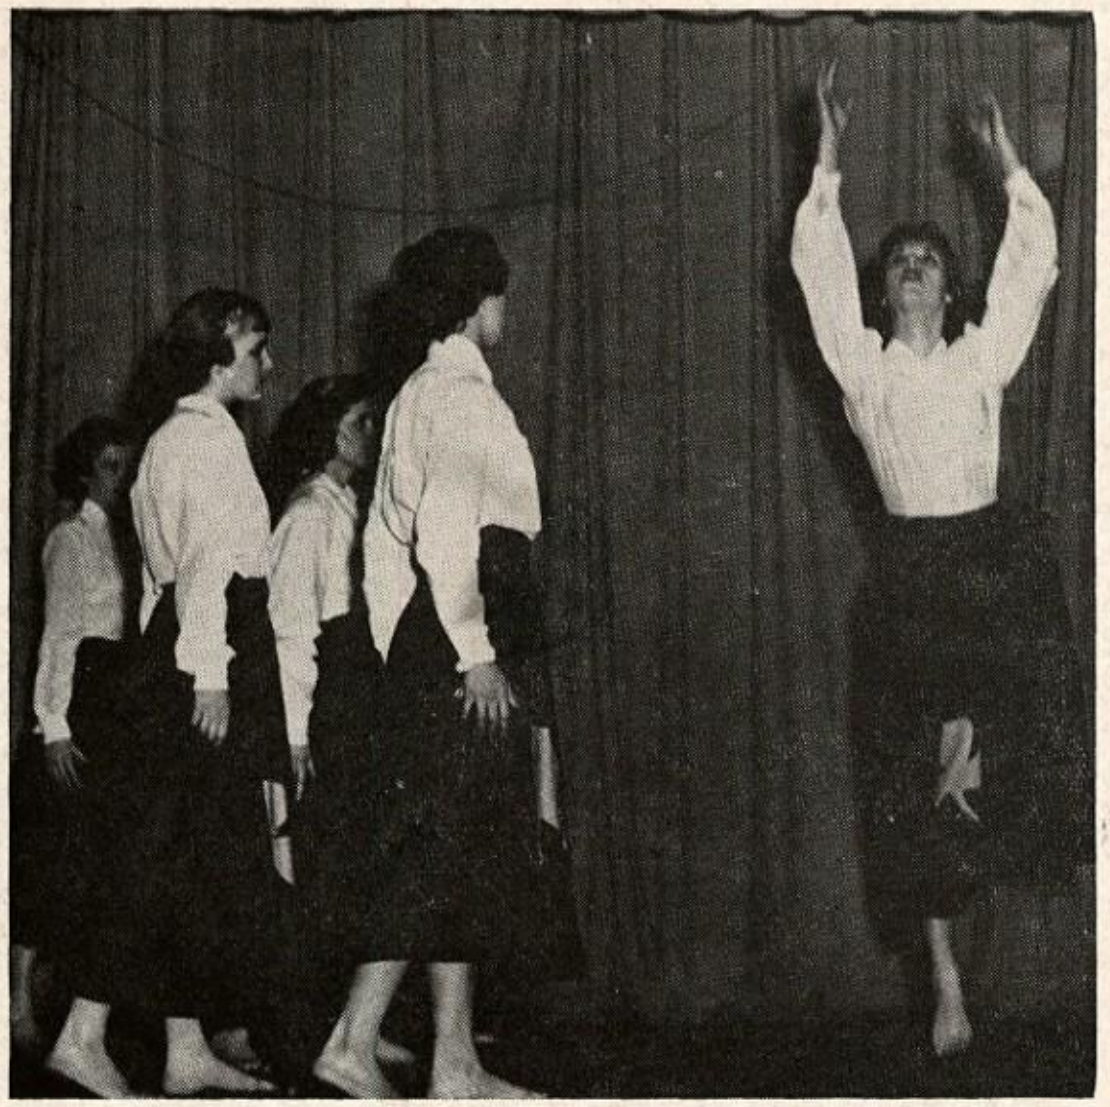
Listed as an extra-curricular activity because it is done largely during two or three months of intensive after-school work, the annual can always count on being rated A1 in local literature contests.

EVERYONE CAN SHINE



ONE OF THE MOST eagerly anticipated dramatic events of the year is the annual St. Patrick's Day program, for which every talent in the school is recruited. Under the direction of Miss Helen Gioia, the girls of the Modern Dance Class (top, right) present their interpretation of "When Irish Eyes are Smiling", with Shirley Matlin, Sophomore, leading.

Performance Number I —Success! HN's Dramatic Club. under Miss Frances Nugent, presents its first performance, "When Neil Amuggen was Tuk," with leads (below) by Jim Evans, Carol Ann Cye, Pat Fink, Donna King and Ed Shirra. Also in the play were Tony Munafo, Jim Bartlett, and Donna Hoffman.

IN DRAMATIC PROGRAMS

ANNUALLY, every Namer is given the chance to show his acting and writing ability in the production of HN's famous weekly rallies.

Thanks to four pairs of feet and two wheels, (top picture, right) 207's hot rod has hit the road to the Ignatius Game. The hopeful quartet of riders is composed of Donald Bartchak, Fred Malloy, Francis Colen, and Stanley Lesczyski.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION IN '51 SUPPOSES

ATTENDING THE ANNUAL Football Banquet, Wednesday, December sixth, were priests, lay teachers, Team, the Band, managers, cheerleaders, and friends of HN's athletic department.

Toastmaster George Kozak '27, Assistant Physical Education Director of the Cleveland Board of Education, and Guest Speaker Father James McIntyre contributed to the spirit of the evening.

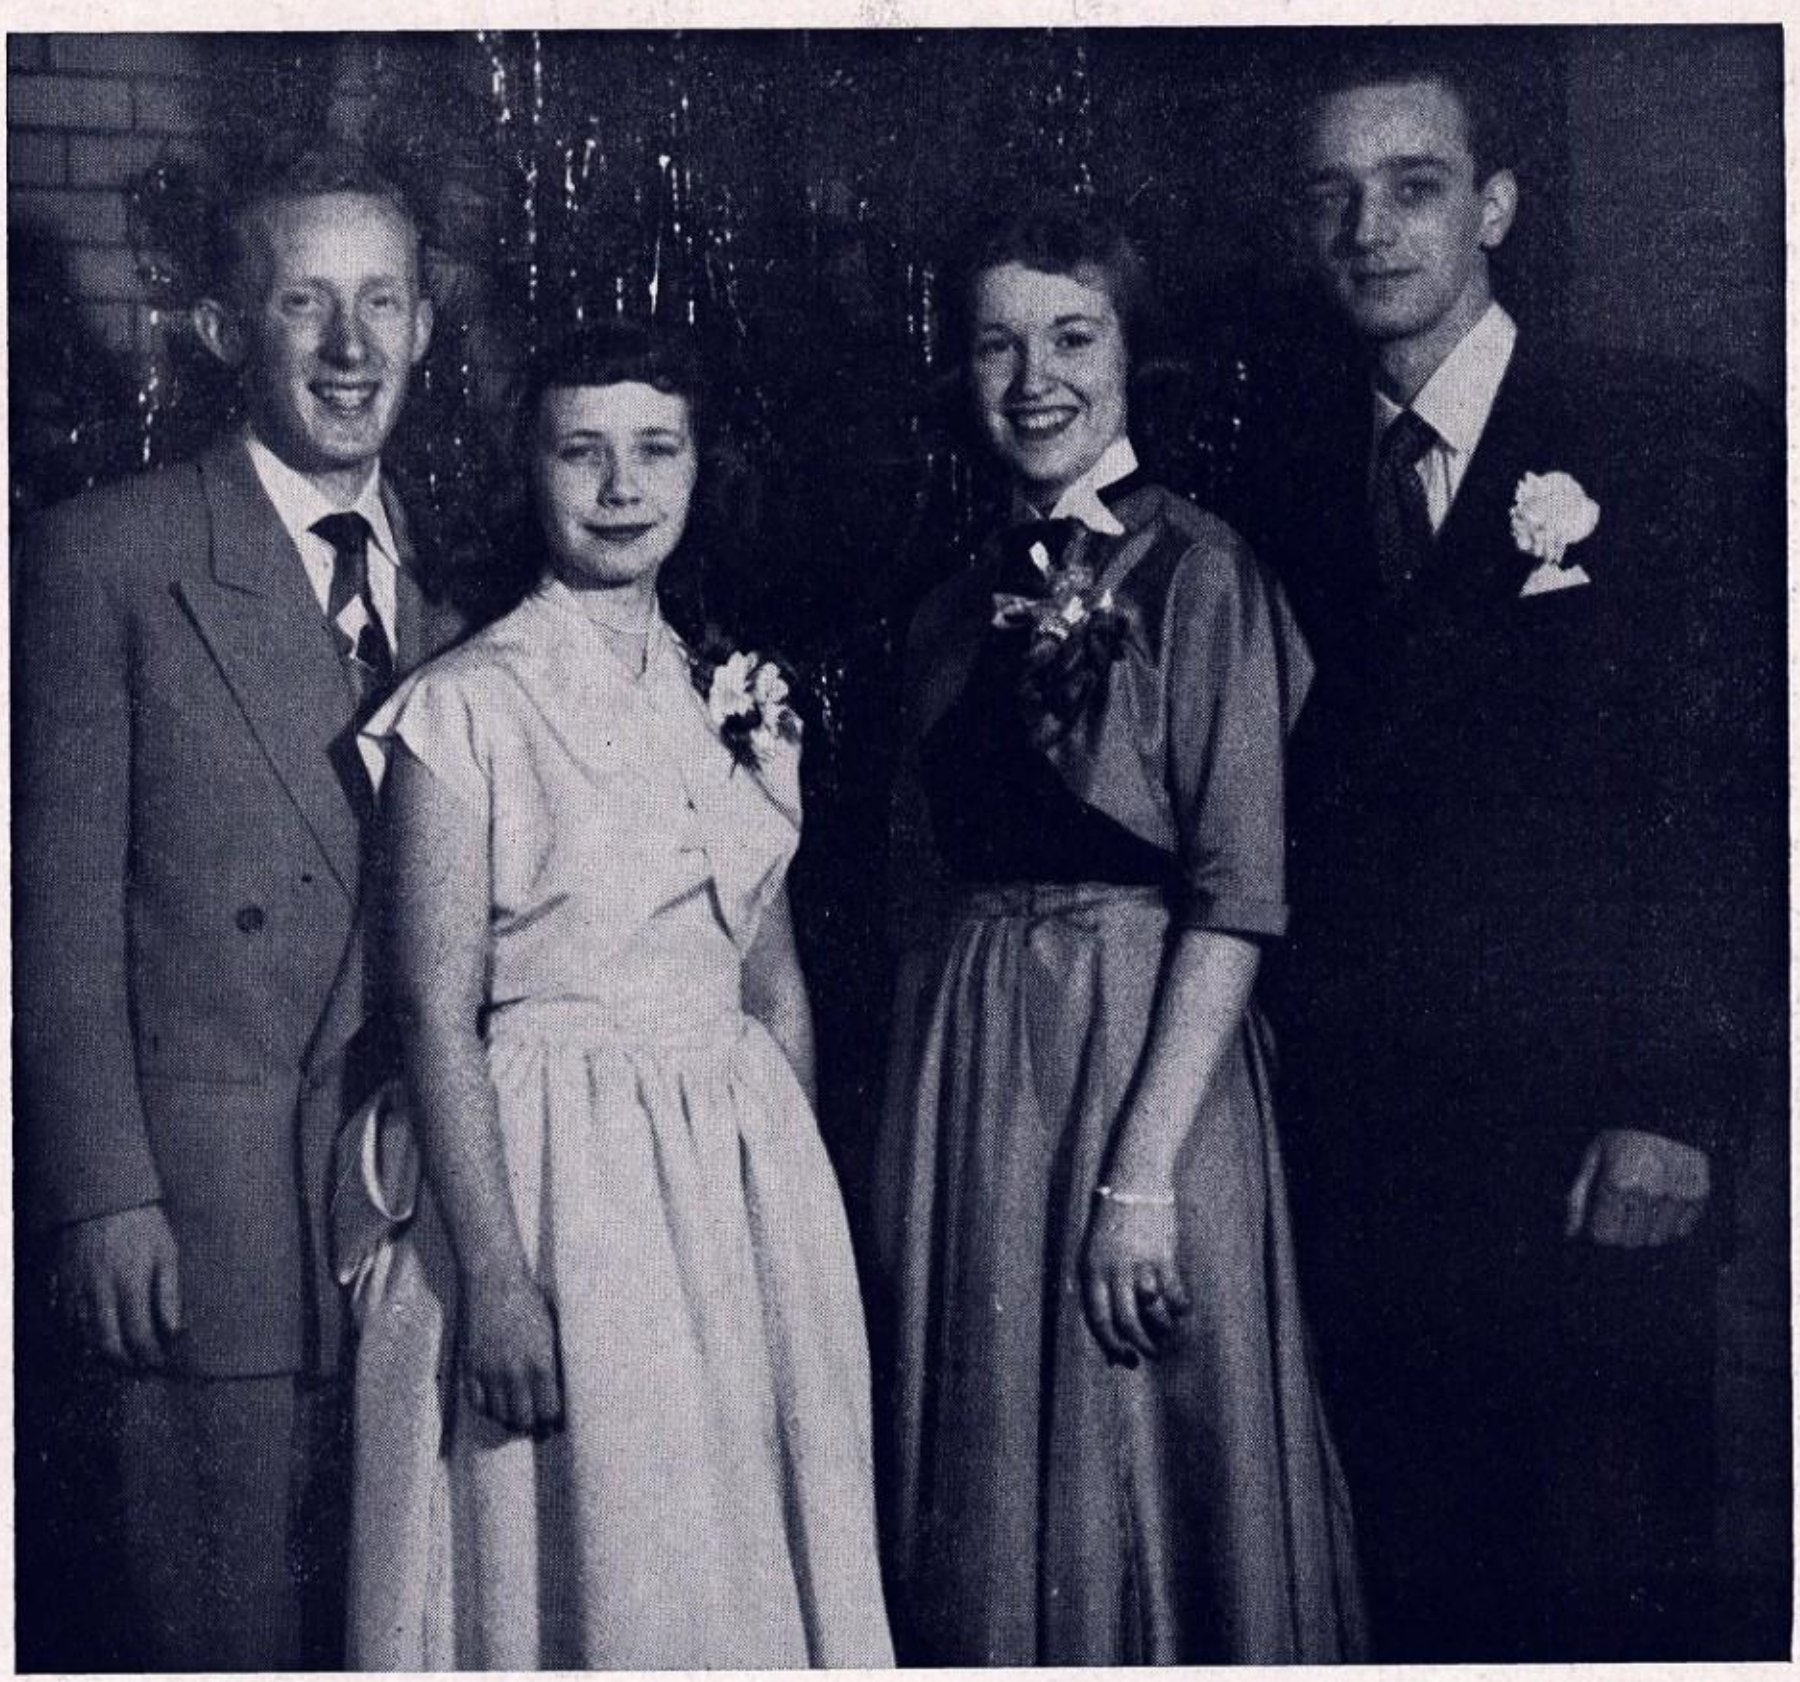
Football letters were then distributed.

LESSONS IN CORRECT SOCIAL USUAGE

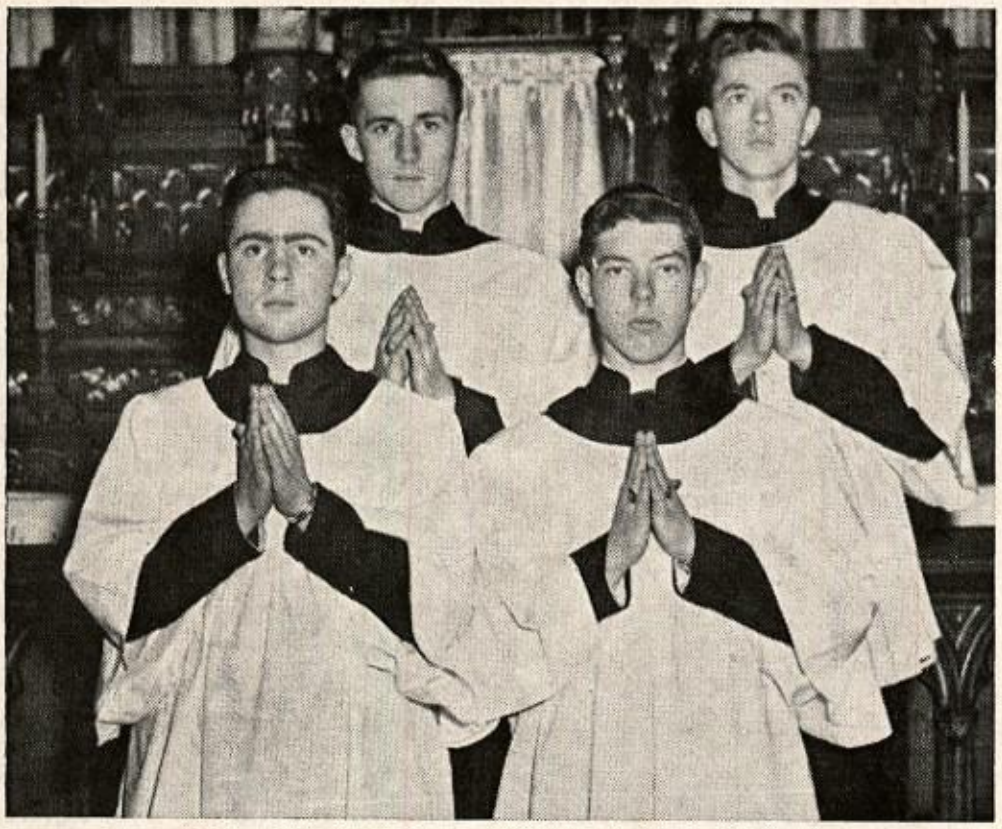


ONCE A YEAR, amid snowflakes, cotton plantations, scenes from the Arabian Nights or almost anything out of this world, girls in billowing formals and their handsome escorts enjoy the romance and glitter of the traditional HN Prom night.

The annual Athletic Ball and the Military and Christmas formals, too, give co-eds and their beaux a chance to enjoy themselves in a world of make-believe.

Lavender and Old Lace memories many years from now will remind us of such happy social activities, when rose-colored glasses were not needed to make everything "wonderful." Two couples having fun in a world of pine and tinsel at the '50 Christmas formal (above) are Joe Schmidt and Joan Hasmon, and Rosemary Retter and Danny Gutia.

SHARING IN PARISH ACTIVITIES TODAY



SERVING MASS and attending to the other duties of the altar boy have been privileges accorded to six Seniors who have been acolytes at Holy Name for four years or more.

UNDER THE DIRECTION of Sister Loretta Marie and Miss Josephine Scimeco, these nine cherubs (along with 50 others!) form Holy Name's vested choir.

Singing above are Kenneth Rosnagel, John Schrader, Donald Barron, Donald Burth, Robert Gerson, Donald Biernoski, Paul Senyitka, Terry Golembiewski, and Arthur Wienderle.

BUILDS PARISH LOYALTY FOR TOMORROW

EVERY THIRD SUNDAY of the month, the Blessed Virgin Sodality attends Mass in a group.

Composed of girls from the ninth through the twelfth grades, upper class sodalists, under the helpful guidance of Sister Ellen Marie, climax their year's activities by sponsoring the all-school May Crowning.

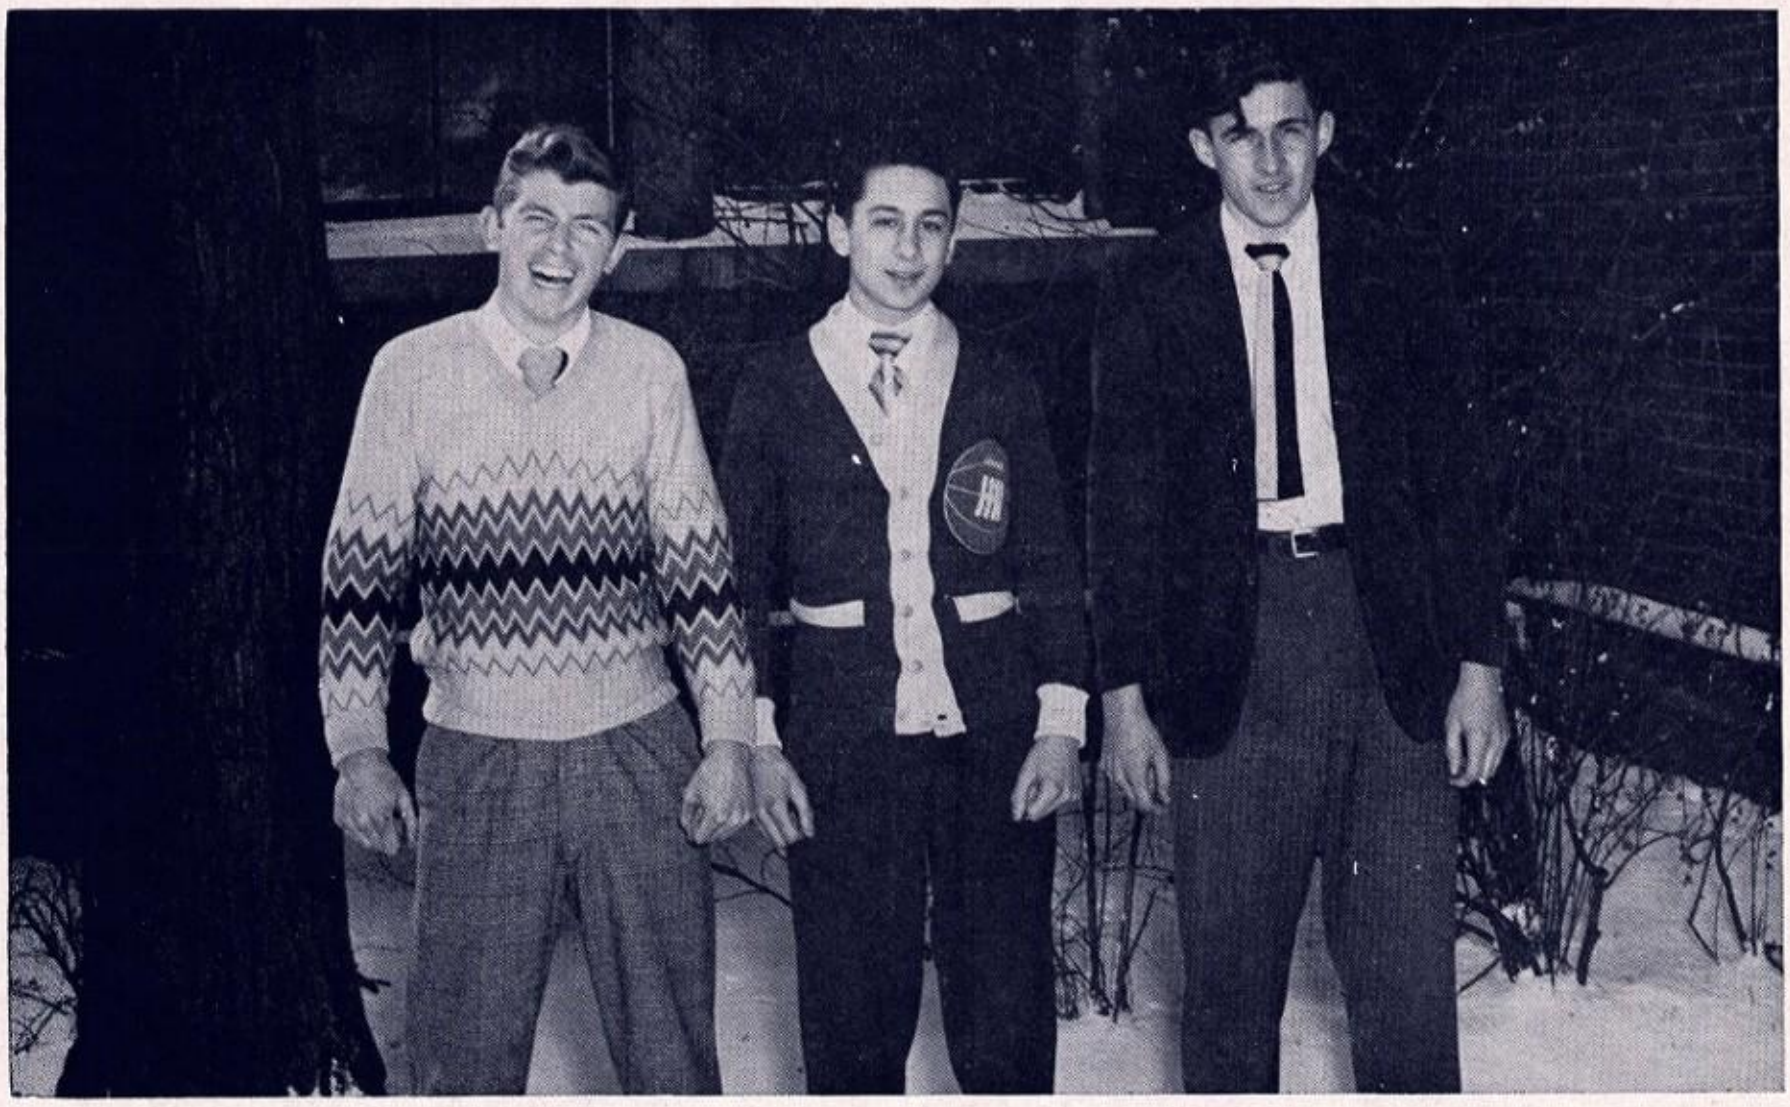
In the Junior High, Sister Edward Marie is the sponsor.



"BLESSED BE HIS HOLY NAME," is the motto of James Bartlett, Jim Grau, and Dominic Farrinacci, Senior Holy Name Society reresentatives (above).

Together with their dads they receive Communion at the Society Mass each month, and occasionally attend breakfast afterward in the Cafeteria. Sister Rose Alma and Sister Anacita are responsible for the high school members.

SETON LEAGUE, MISSION CLUBS AFFORD

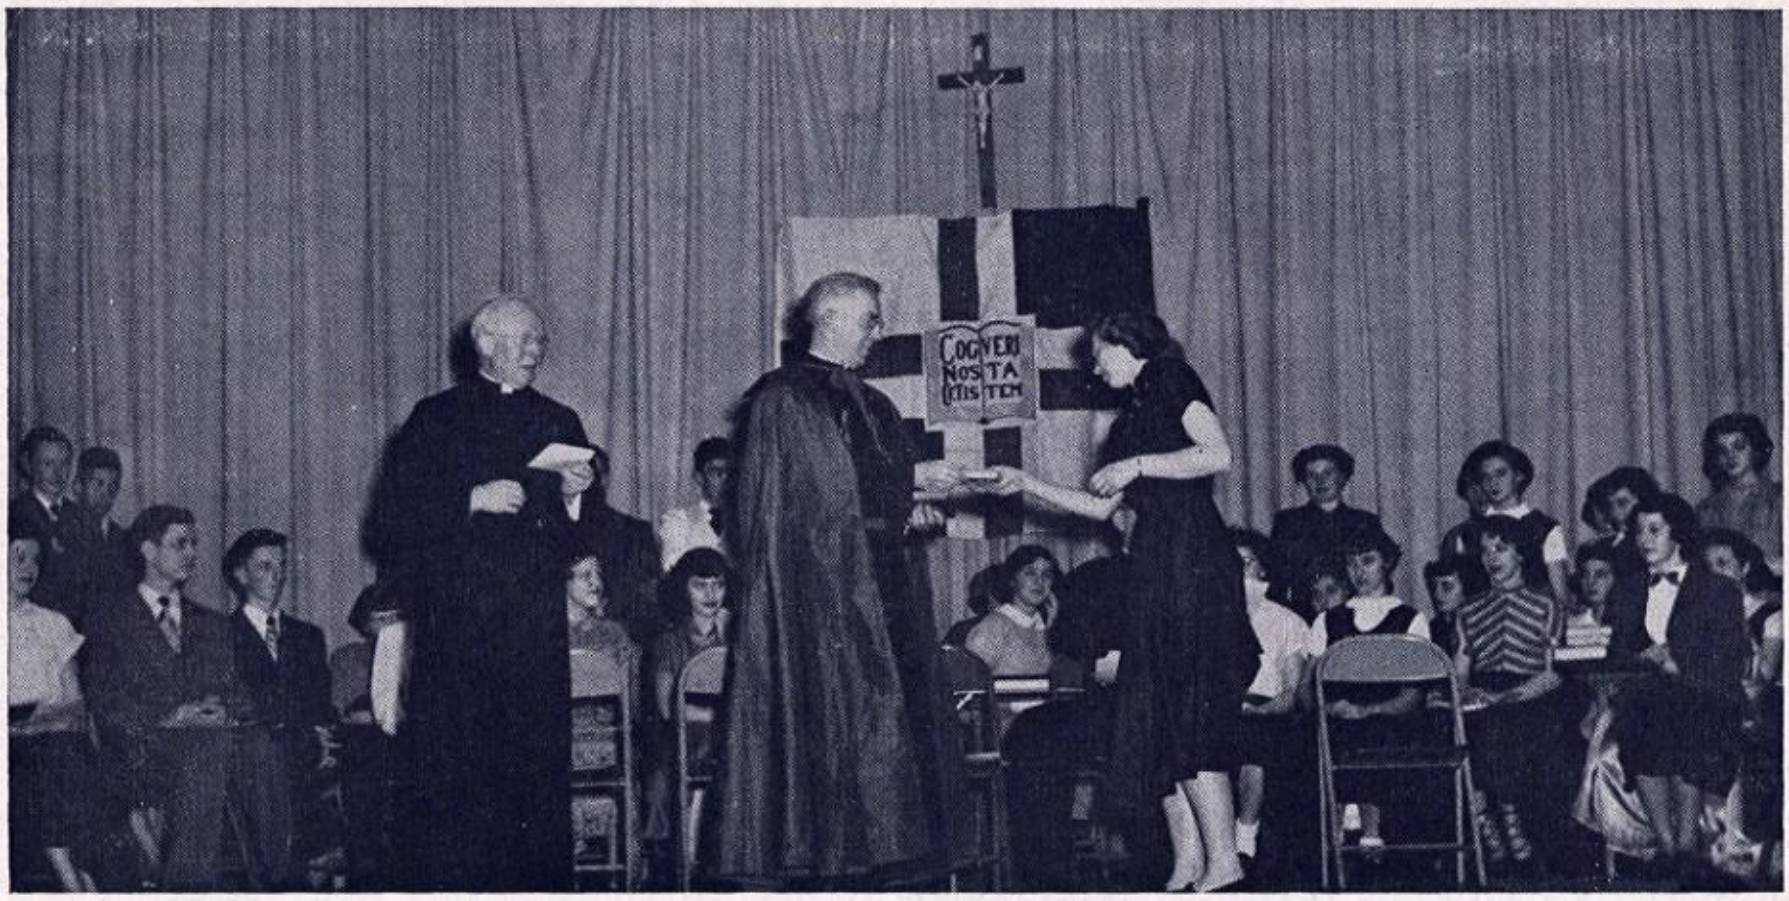
CHANCE TO SERVE CHRIST IN OTHERS



TO KOREA, the Fiji Islands, Africa, China, as well as to Missions here at home, have gone precious boxes of Mission supplies from Holy Name's energetic Mission groups. Directed by Sister Marguerite, loyal C.S.M.C. units have also organized study clubs, literature distribution, and prayer groups. Above, outstanding Mission workers receive the Paladin Award at the annual assembly. Presenting the award to Rosemary Driscoll, in the presence of Father Charles McDonough, is Right Reverend Monsignor Charles McBride.

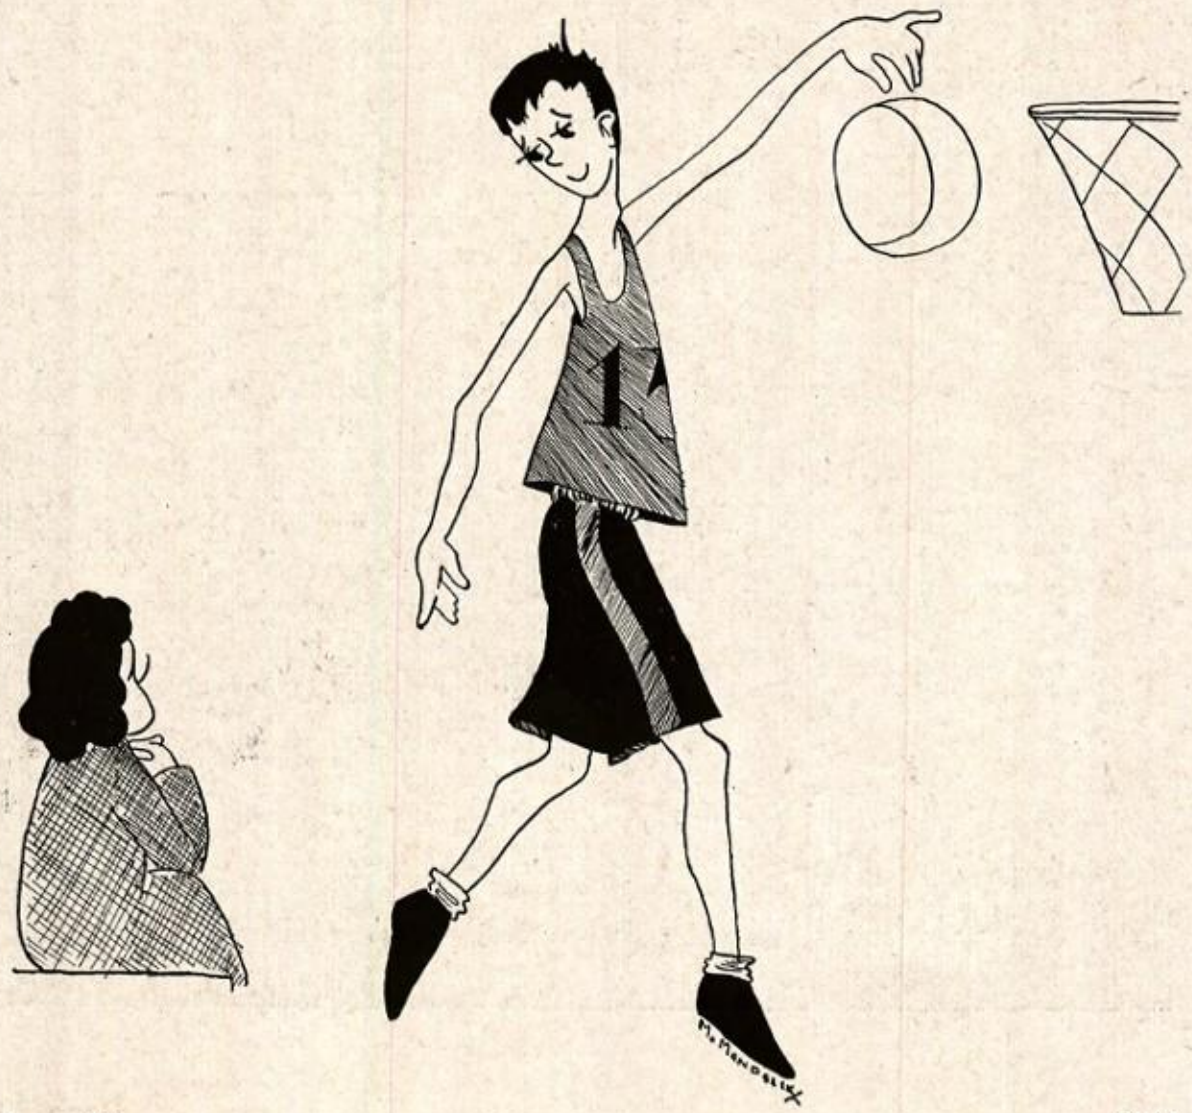
QUESTION IV: A TOOL
SPORTS--AN END OR A MEANS?

"Your academic association," commented Pope Pius XII in a recent address, "will put you on your guard against the tendency, too common, alas, nowadays, of making sports an end in themselves which they never can be, since the harmony between the physical development of man on the one side, and his intellectual and moral development on the other is not achieved."

"Athletics, for the sake of athletics," adds the Los Angeles C.Y.O., "is a waste of time, effort and money. The Church is not interested in developing great athletes; it is not the Church's place to act as a training farm for the Big Leagues. We cannot emphasize too strongly that athletics as an end in themselves have no place in our programs.

"Athletics, properly conducted, play a worthwhile part in the physical development of young people, however. Respect for authority, will power, coolness of temper, self sacrifice, justice, honesty, determination and many other desirable qualities can be instilled through competitive sports."



HN's coaching staff and the other faculty members cooperate in impressing on Little David that slingshots come in mighty handy at times, but that high school students have other far more important duties than the interesting one of taking care of neighboring grid Goliaths.

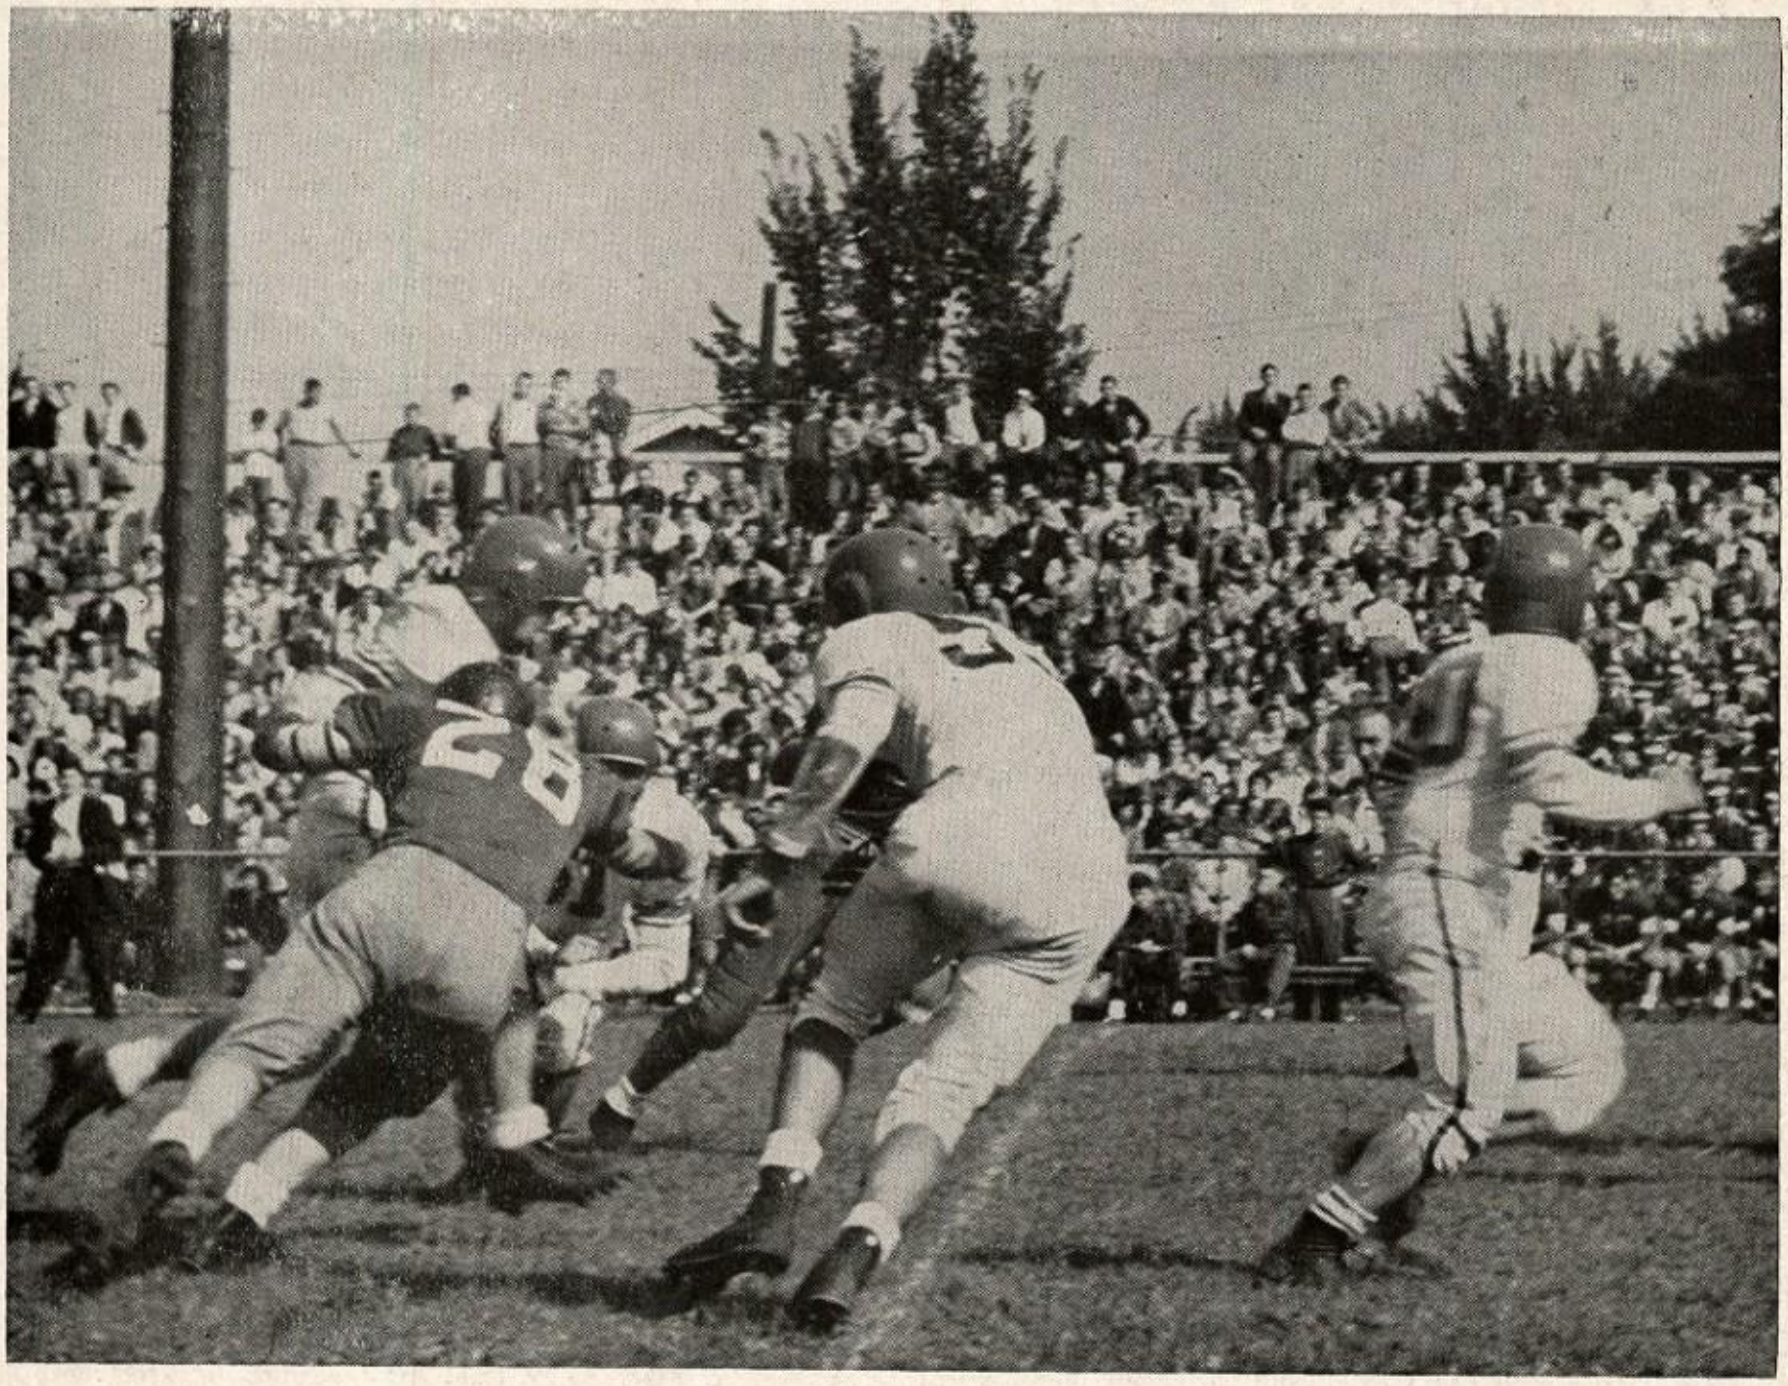
DAVID SPRINTS THROUGH LAST GAME



AFTER HAVING A BAD CASE of lossitis, Lil' Davids picked them up and laid them down as they sprinted through the last four games.

Getting off to a poor start, with a loss to the Bengals, 14-0, the Green Wave tried to compensate by eking out a 13-0 win over West High.

Losing the next two games to Rhodes and West Tech, HN grid squad romped over a mediocre John Marshall eleven, 26-0. Dropping the next two games to Latin, 18-0, and St. Ignatius, 28-14, might have looked bad in the records, but to the Holy Name student body these were undoubtedly two of the best games played by the Big Green. Following up these two losses with wins over South and Lincoln was the Green Wave's way of apologizing for what proved a poor season, but not a poor showing.

One sound argument for Holy Name's having achieved a good showing was the South High Game.

Unleashing the Green Wave that cold November night was like sending small sailboats to combat the ships at sea. Ice-chilled wind and rain were HN players worst enemy as they doubled the South High Flyers, 25-13, to recapture the coveted Pig Iron trophy.

CROWNING SEASON WITH VICTORY

LITTLE DAVID, TAKE A BOW! Coming out on the short end of a heartbreaking score more often than not, the '50 Varsity nevertheless worked with a snappy spirit.

THESE ARE THE MEN BEHIND THE SCENES

WHEN THE BIG GREEN CARRIES THE BALL

Father Hughes

EVIDENCE of HN's spirit is Little David's athletic director, (right) Reverend Father James Hughes.

Filling Father Mac's shoes and starting on his own pair, Father Hughes has introduced several new activities while expanding the old.

Well-liked on the campus as athletic counselor and in the Sophomore homerooms as spiritual advisor, Father Hughes will be a favorite of the student body for many more football seasons to come!

RAIN OR SHINE couldn't scare these cheerleaders from their post, but graduation will drop them from their position on Holy Name's list of yell boys. (Below)

INEXPERIENCED GREEN WAVE PLAYS HARD

Finishing with a poor record—won two, lost 11—Coach Joe Lesko's basketeers displayed spirit and promise, despite inexperience and lack of height.

DISPLAYS AGILITY, SPIRIT, ON '51 COURT

YOUNG UNS GO PLACES, DO THINGS

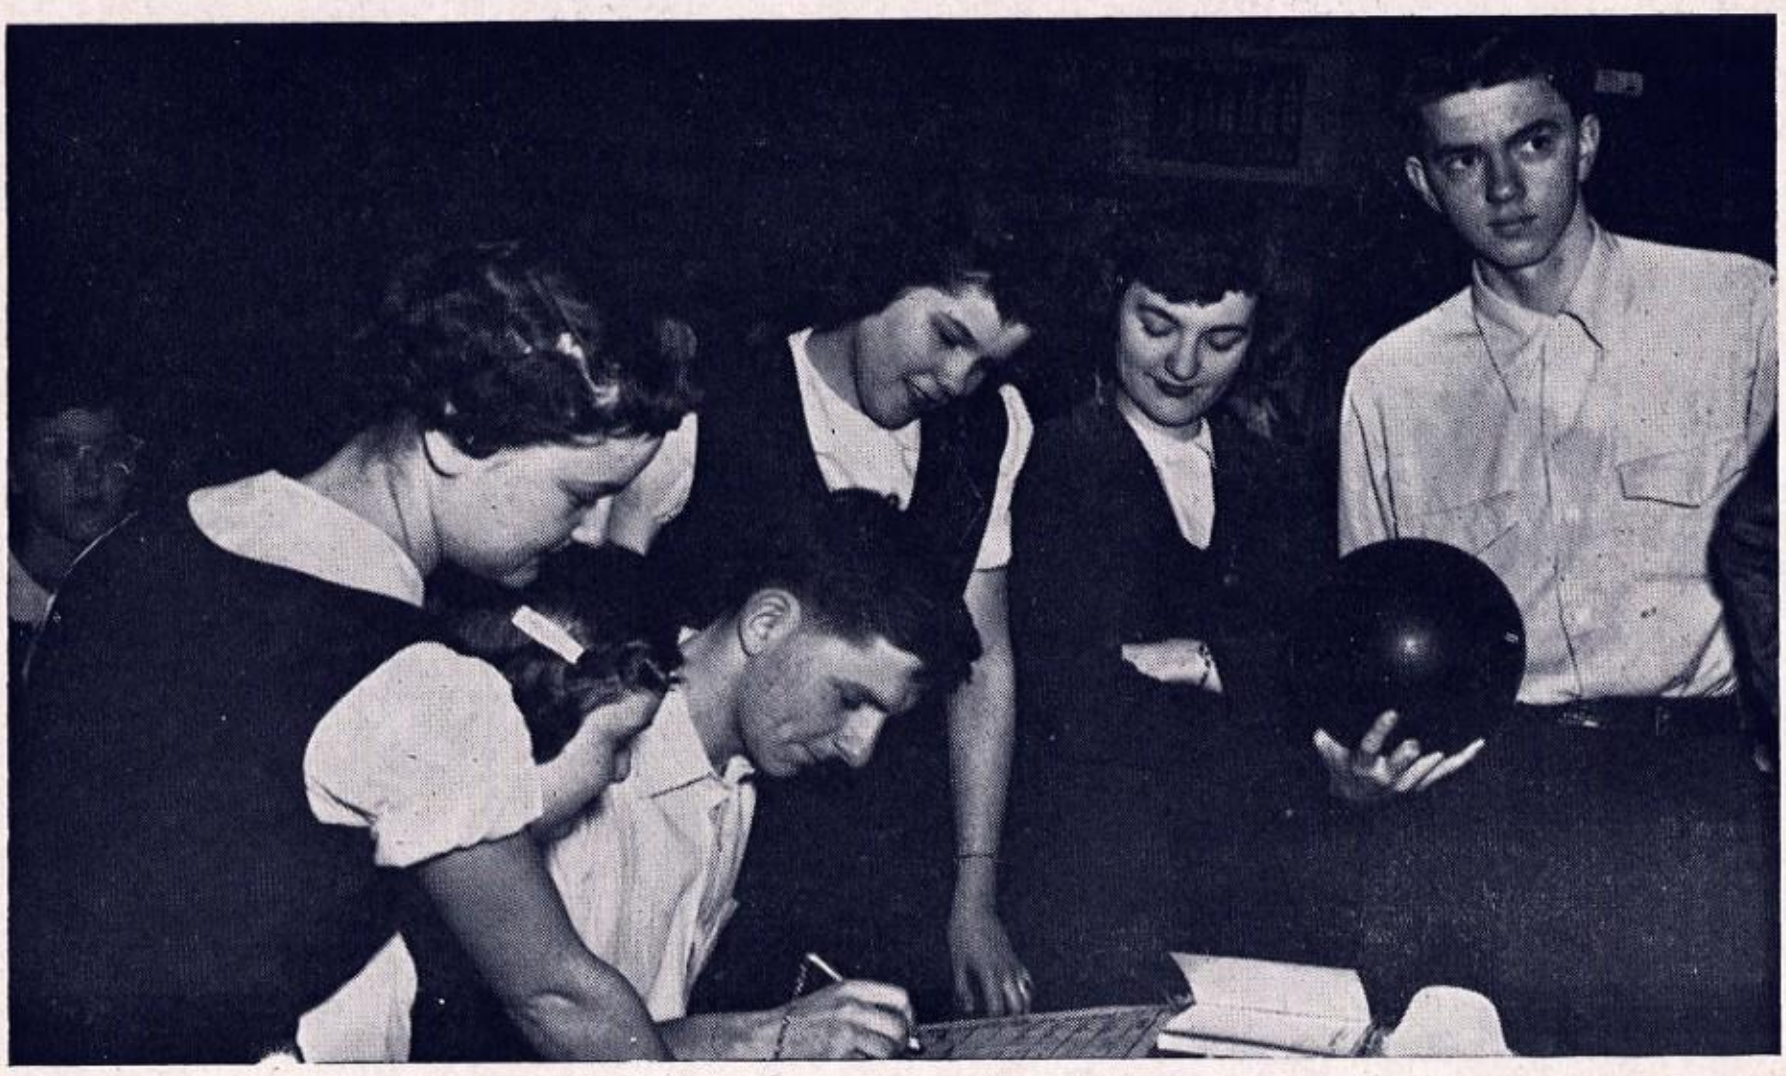
HN LEAGUES SEND PINS SPRAWLING



FINISHING its initial year at HN, bowling has manuevered itself into the hearts of many Namers as top sport on their agenda.

Organized by Miss Helen Gioia, gym teacher, with the aid of Father James Hughes, Athletic Director, and Miles Recreation, local leagues enabled girls and boys to enjoy bowling after school. The well-balanced teams were divided into five leagues, sanctioned by the American Bowling Congress.

COEDS ACQUIRE POISE, GRACE IN GYM

BESIDES SOCIAL ACTIVITIES, sports, and leadership, the Girls Gym Leaders (above) find time for other activities. Under the direction of Miss Helen Gioia, the girls are recently active playing basketball at Woodland Recreation.

The photograph taken for the Annual which best showed facial expression was, strangely enough, one of the Modern Dance class, taken for the Sports Section.

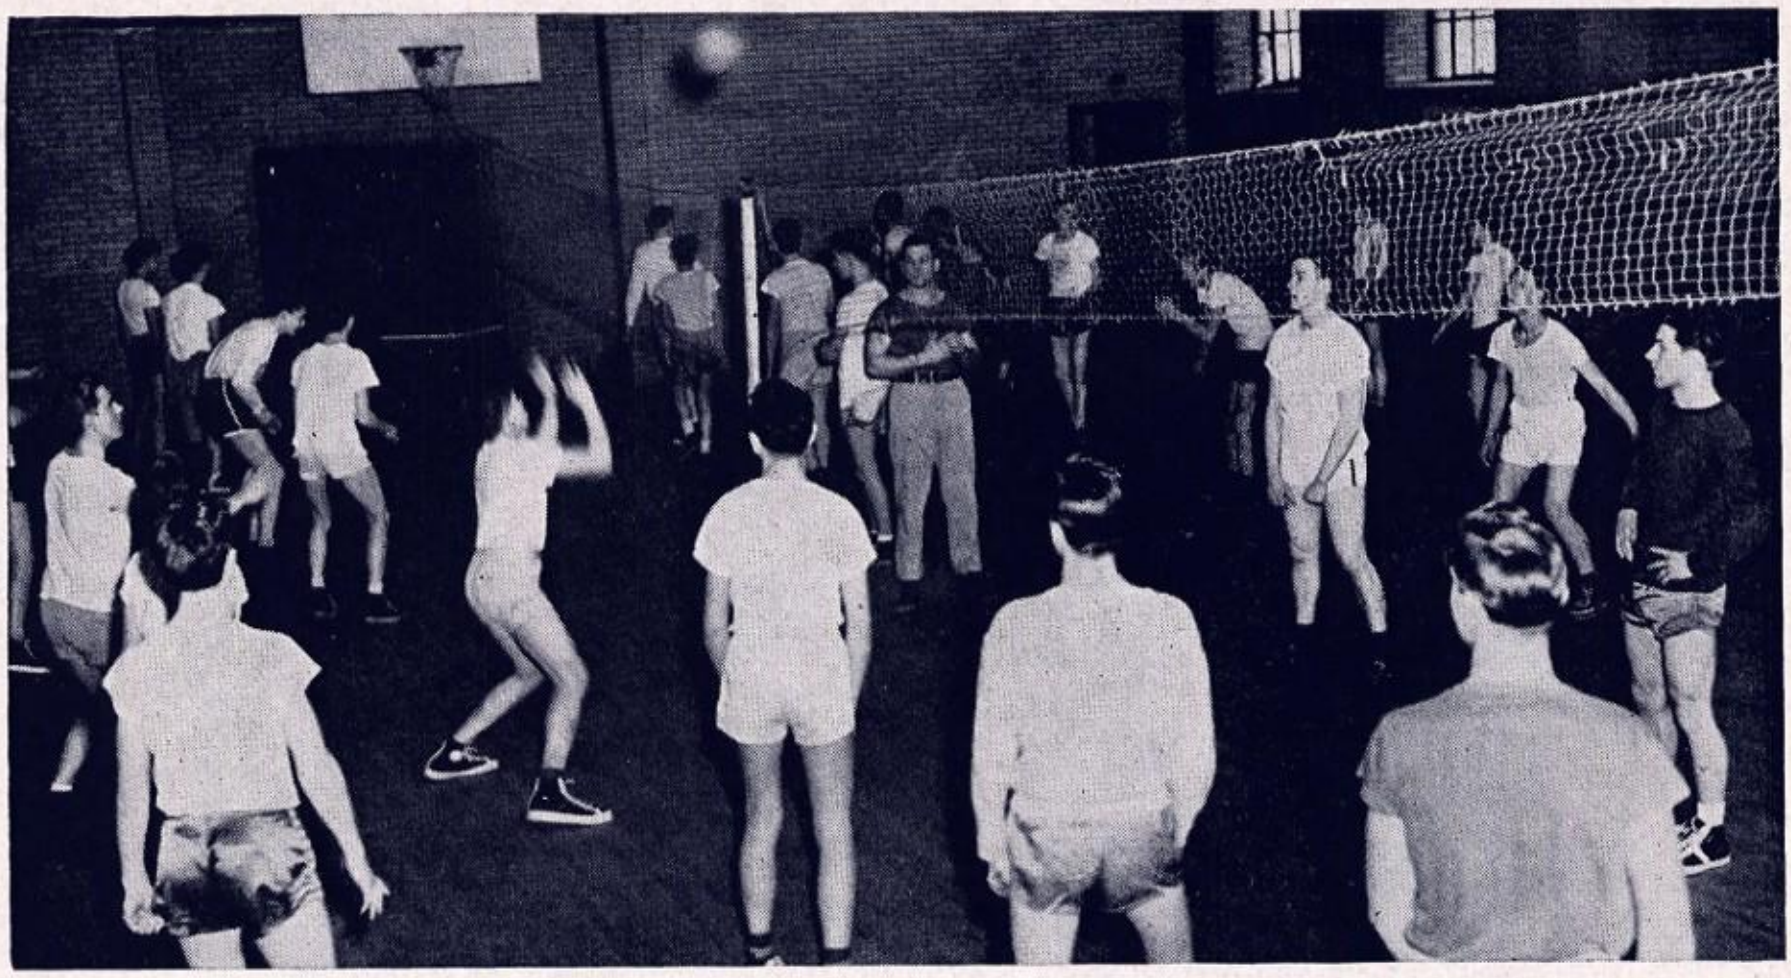
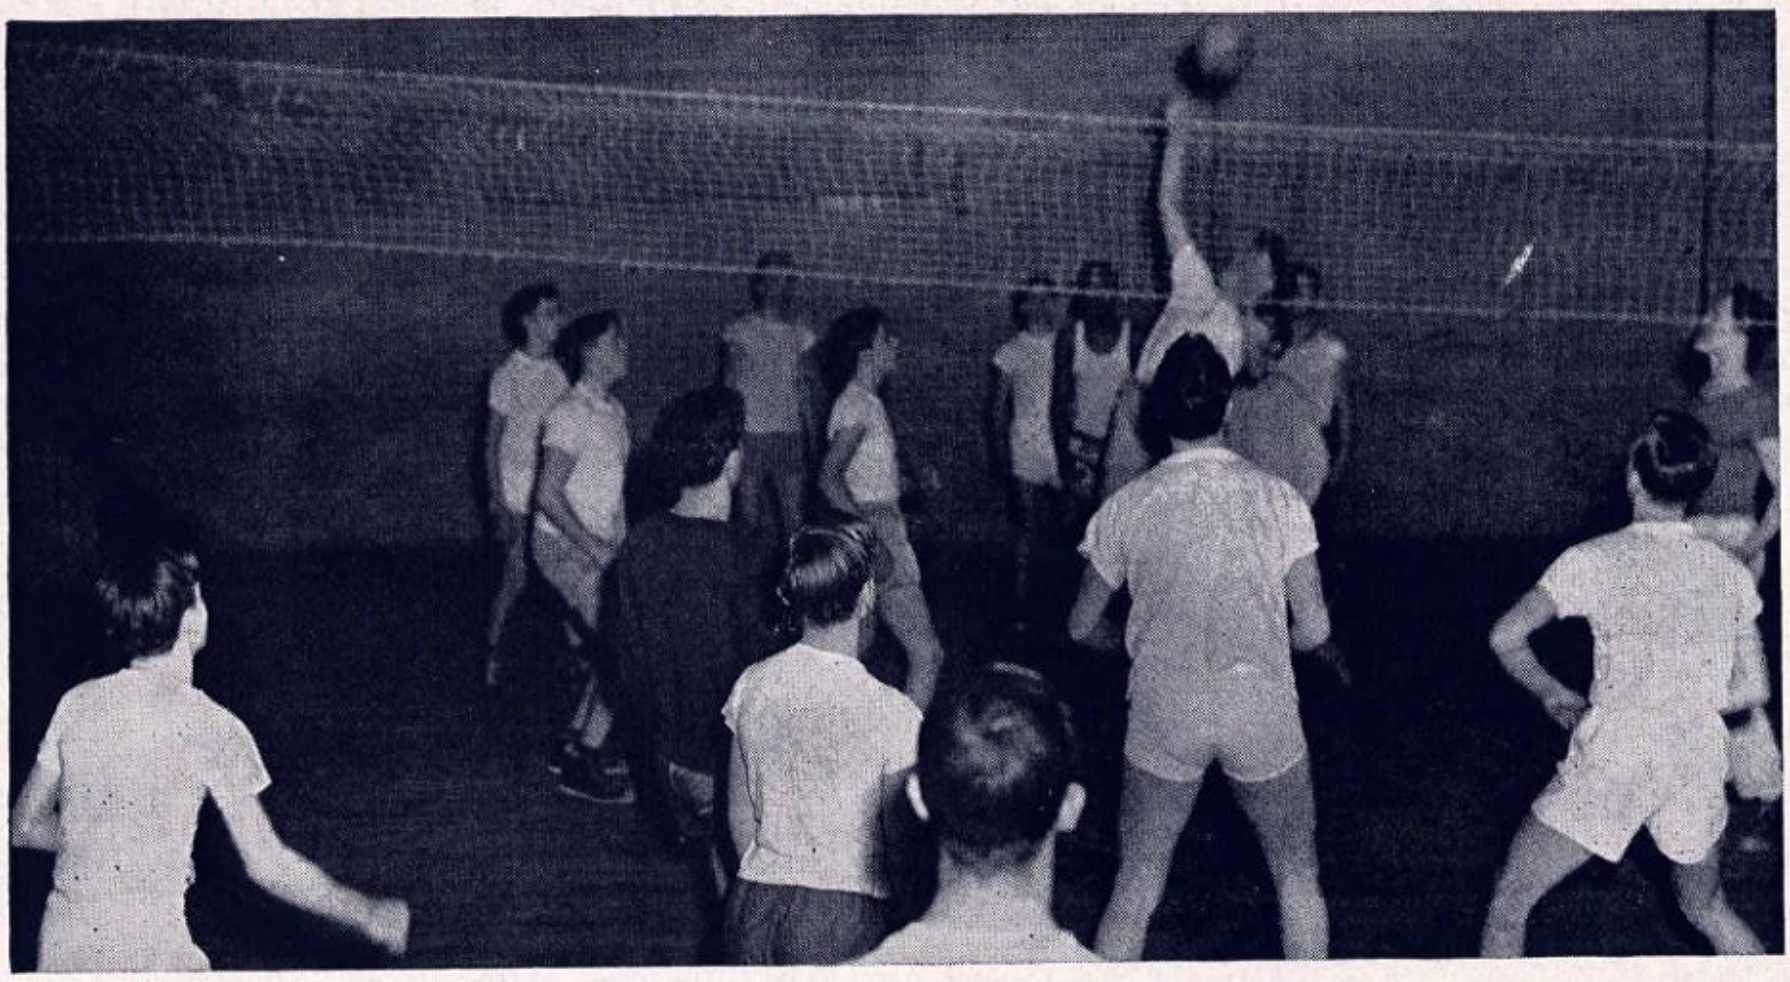
WHILE BOYS BUILD MUSCLES, WORKOUT



HARD MUSCLES and agile limbs are the results of Mr. Spezzaferro's efforts in his boys' gym classes, pictured on this page. The school year began with military marching; then came basketball, volleyball, and tumbling. Later in the year the boys learned the finer points of baseball and football.

When things tend to get out of control in the classes, Mr. Spezzaferro makes use of psychology, resorting to the use of the "board of education" with which all gym students are familiar!



MEET MR. RIESSINGER'S PROTEGEES

THAT EAGER-BEAVER LOOK belongs to Don Hicar (left, in the above picture) as he gazes upon Mr. Frank Riessinger (center) head baseball coach at Holy Name since 1936. Paul Bender (right) isn't as attentive as his teammate, as the coach maps out his plans for the coming season.

Frank expects a good season next year, because only two of his regulars are Seniors, and there are many promising prospects.

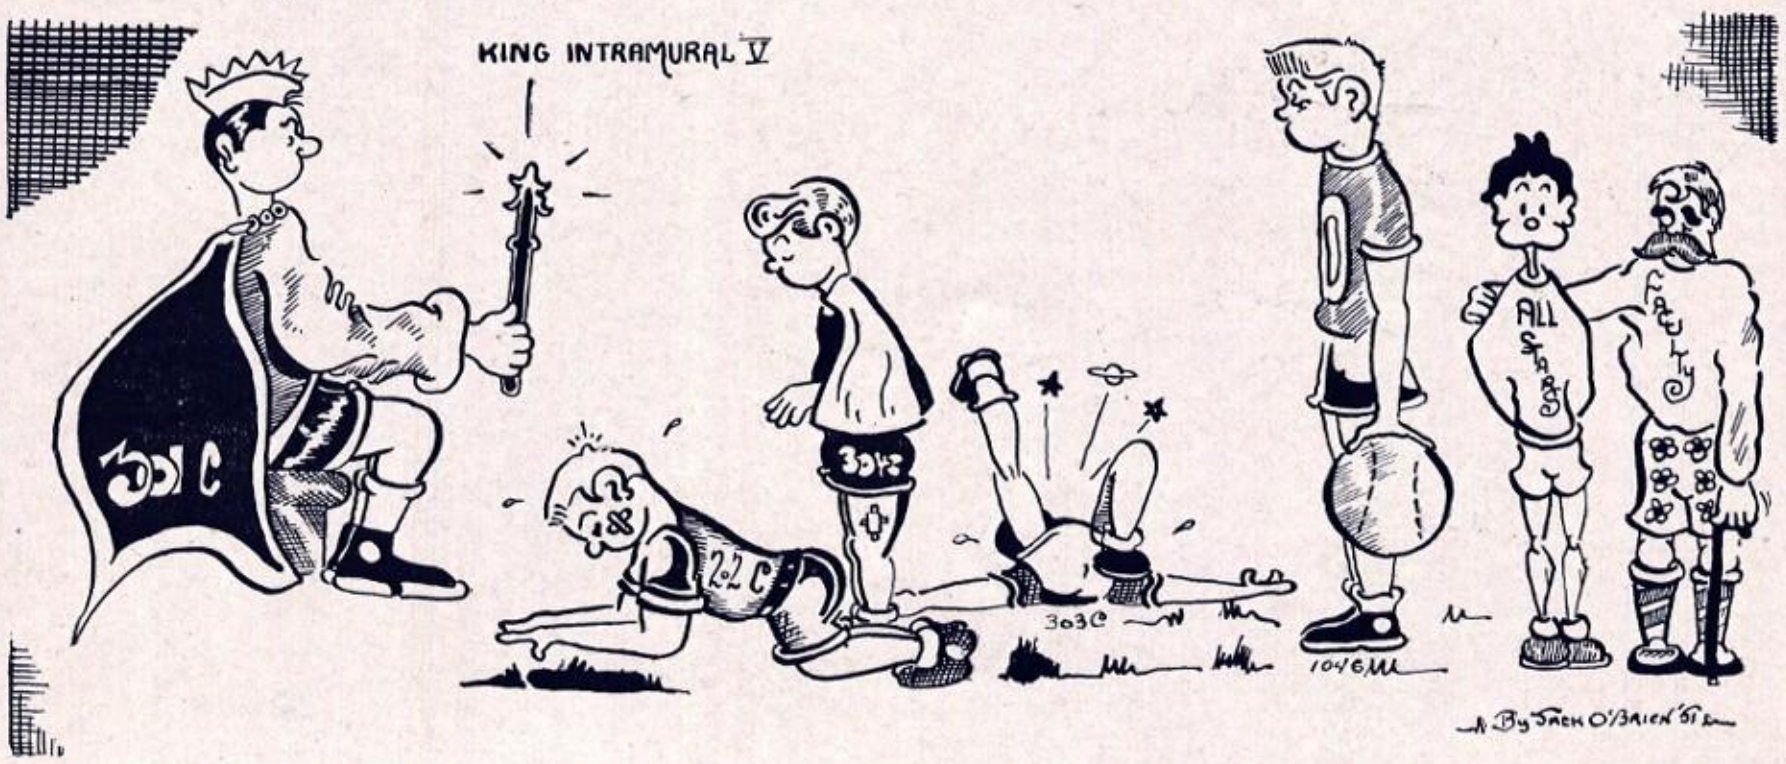
FOUL!—The groans and moans of coeds could be heard all over Li'l David's gym. Yes, intramurals were here again!

Plunging in on an elimination basis, that is one and out, the girls had no practice sessions, and sacrificed an hour of their beauty sleep to play their games before school. Meeting in the championship game were Junior Homeroom 204C, and the Senior champs of 104C.

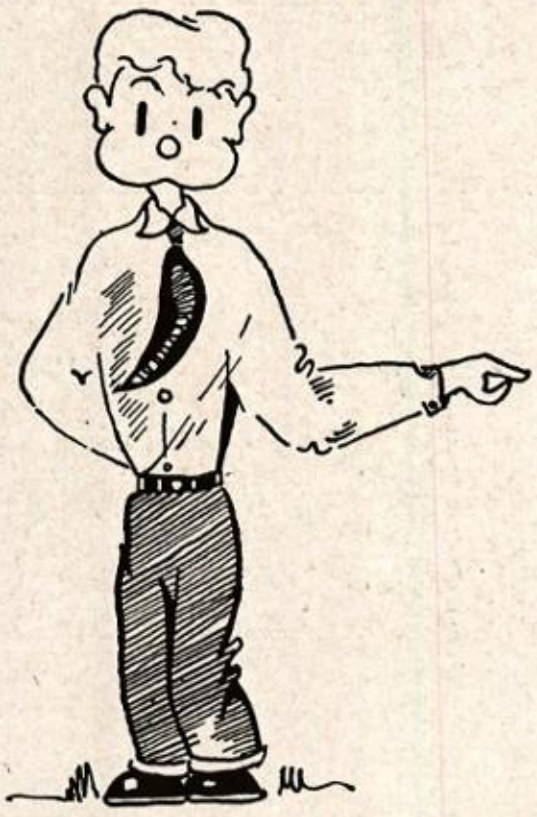


'TWO--FOUR--SIX--EIGHT--
WHO DO WE APPRECIATE'

HATS OFF, once again, to all who participated in the '51 Ad Drive. A hearty thanks to all Namers, and especially to those pictured on the next page, the 14 loyal student aides who so energetically attacked the job of traipsing from door to door that they brought in a total of $50.00 or more in ads, patrons or boosters.

Booking the 250 boosters and taking on the duty of sending them their yearbooks was Pat Coyle '52. 500 loyal Namers signed on the dotted line for patrons which Charles Gump '51, took care of.

Ads, ads and more ads was all Gerry Stibil '52, saw for five weeks straight. It was her job to find out where the ads would go in the book and how they would read.



Juniors Loretta McDonnell, Dolores Kocjancic and Peggy McGinty had the bankers' job of taking care of the money from ads, patrons and boosters. Typists of all necessary business data for the printer were Seniors Rita Guerard, Kathleen Houck, and Marie Lucas.

Last but not least, we tip our hats to Monsignor McDonough, to Sister Rosario, and to the entire faculty, all of whom cooperated so generously in making the drive a complete success.

THANKS, PALS!

Loretta, Dolores, and Peggy

What Does the CARROLL PLAN for '51 Do for YOU—the HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATE?

★ An uninterrupted four year college education in the academic program of your choosing . . . liberal arts, science, business, or pre-professional.

★ Training in basic military service and in the fascinating science of transportation . . . training leading to an officer's commission at graduation.

★ Jesuit Education: training of the mind and of the individual to foster and nourish principles of Americanism . . . right of private property, sanctity of the home, sacredness of the individual, governments by and for the governed.

★ Officer cadets who in their first semester demonstrate proficiency in both academic and military phases of the CARROLL PLAN are by current regulations contractually deferred from active military service until completion of their four year college program.

"Now I have a sheep and a cow, everybody bids me good morrow"

Centuries ago, thrifty citizens earned the respect of others just as thy do today. Folks with property or cash-in-the-bank have a feeling of security and self-confidence that is felt by others and gains respect. A thrifty citizen is invariably a good citizen.

Over a hundred years ago Society for Savings was organized to encourage thrift. It has given protection of principal and uninterrupted dividends for over a hundred years. It welcomes savings epositors, large and small. Come in and learn how a Society Plan can help you build a savings account.

NORMAN F. DRISCOLL

ORCHIDS DELUXE

These people averaged 100 hours extra time on the yearbook.

Top row are Namer Staff members who took over when they received a desperate S.O.S. Loretta McDonnell and Dolores Kocjancic each wrote and prepared one half of the class copy; Jack O'Brien did the cartoons; Pat Fink wrote and prepared all social section copy, and supervised sports copy; Peggy McGinty took copy back and forth to the printer.

In the second row (below) are Annual Staff Cubs who did a wonderful job; Phyllis Yeskulsky and Mary Alice Norton pasted all the underclass pictures alphabetically, getting the names in order, etc. Mary Jane Archer typed all underclass names, arranged Senior portraits and supervised the Introductory Section.
